

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

(SUMMARY.)

Quebec Lunatic Asylum.—Mode adopted by the government to provide for the maintenance of the lunatics of this Province; economy of this system.—Abridged and comparative statement showing the cost for the care and maintenance of each lunatic in the asylums of England, France, United States and Canada.—Of the admission of patients to the Quebec Asylum.—Formalities required for their admittance; application for admittance; medical certificate; informations.—Discharges.—Visitors Page 5.

MEDICAL REPORT.

MOVEMENT OF THE POPULATION.

Movement of the inmates of the Quebec Asylum.—I. Statement of the movement of inmates of the asylum in the last 18 months.—II. Statement showing the annual increase from 1845 to the 30th June 1873.—III. Comparative statement of the sane portion of the population with the lunatics, from the last census.—IV. Statement of the time of stay.—V. Statement, classification of diseases treated from 1st January 1872 to the 30th June 1873..... Page 33.

ADMISSIONS.

I. Statement, admissions and re-admissions during the last 18 months.—II. Statement, causes of readmissions during the last 18 months.—III. Statement, previous residence of the patients admitted during the last 18 months, and of those since 1845.—IV. Statement, social position.—V. Statement, religion.—VI. Statement, language.—VII. Statement, origin and nationality.—VIII. Statement, occupation.—IX. Statement, age when admitted.—X. Statement, symptoms of the disease previous to admission.—Observations on the necessity of an immediate treatment for mental diseases.—Favorable results of this immediate treatment as regards economy.—Error committed by economists who pretend to prevent the overcrowding of Asylums and diminishing the expenses of the budget in preventing as much as possible the seclusion of lunatics in asylums.—XI. Statement, classification of diseases of patients admitted during the 18 months.—Presumed causes of mental diseases.—Of frequent causes of mental diseases; Errors of civilization; Of personal vices or stress of nervous system; 1. Heredity; 2. Education; 3. Immorality; 4. Excessive use of tobacco; 5. Excessive use of opium; 6. Excess of alcoholic liquors; 7. Convulsive diseases; 8. Intermariages and incompatibility Page 43.