THE WRIGHT STREET HOME.

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir,—Referring to a letter published in the Globe and Times on Saturday, the 26th instant, and signed by D. C. Clarke, W. S. Morrison and W. H. Golding relating to the purchase price of the real estate now belonging to the Provincial Memorial Home on Wright street, this city, I beg to say:

The property was never offered by the owners to the St. John Protestant Orphan Asylum or anyone else, either directly or indirectly, for any sum like two-thirds what Rev. Mr. Robinson purchased it for. Some years ago an offer of $14,000 was made for the property and refused. About the same time a second offer for about the same amount (a little more) was made and declined. The owners did not wish to sell. Early in 1919 the St. John Protestant O. A. could have purchased for $12,000 and assume a mortgage of $3,000, but their committee decided the property was not suitable.

I have been called upon repeatedly to check absurd stories about the sale of this property to Rev. Mr. Robinson, but never intended to enter into any newspaper controversy and won't now.

Rev. Mr. Robinson came to me and wanted to know if I would sell, and the price. He then asked for a thirty-day option. The owners of the property deeded it to him and that closed the matter so far as the purchase was concerned.

I am writing principally for the purpose of denying that part of Messrs. Clarke, Morrison and Golding's letter relating to the price they could have bought it for, which is untrue.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, and hoping this will end this unfortunate controversy, I remain

Yours truly,
T. A. LINTON,
Trustee for Linton Heirs.

"Certainly we sell"—

HEINZ
OVEN BAKED BEANS
with Tomato Sauce

In its original state the bean is a humble vegetable. In a can labeled "Heinz Baked Beans" it is a thing of distinction.

When you open a can of Heinz Baked Beans, you are greeted with a most appetizing odor—you become hungry at once.

We have baked these beans in dry heat in real ovens and brought out the nut-like flavor, and we have then added the most delicious tomato sauce.

Every grocer everywhere can testify to their great popularity, for to be "out" of Heinz Baked Beans is like being "out" of flour and sugar and salt.
