IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of my dear son, W. Bayard Moore and brother, Fred, who was killed in action between September 15 and 17, 1916.

They sleep in peace, the noble dead, A nation's pride, a nation's loss, And angels guard each lovely bed, Marked by a single cross.

Not caring for the world's applause, Not seeking honor or renown, But in a great and glorious cause, Each young life was laid down.

MOTHER AND FAMILY WESTMOUNT, P. Q. WHALEN.—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Fred, who was killed in action between September 15 and 17, 1916.

He lies in France in a soldier's grave; For freedom's right his life he gave, But in his home he will be seen no more, He has gone beyond to a goodly shore.

MOTHER, SISTERS AND BROTHERS CLARKE.—In loving memory of Sadie, who departed this life Sunday morning, Sept. 13, 1915.

Just as the day was breaking, And the morning task begun, An angel whispered to darling Sadie, Your life work is done.

A few more struggles here, A few more partings o'er, A few more tears, And we shall weep no more.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

IMPERIAL'S FEATURE

WILL STARTLE SOME "Why Change Your Wife?" — Monday's Picture — Is Bound to Give Hundreds a Jolt!

The vital theme of marital infidelity and the causes that lead thereto, are splendidly portrayed in Cecil B. De Mille's latest Paramount Artcraft picture, "Why Change Your Wife?" which will be presented for the first time in this city at the Imperial commencing Monday.

While a companion picture in a sense to a former Cecil De Mille success, "Don't Change Your Husband," the new picture is totally different in the development of the story and characterizations.

The plot centers around Robert and Beth Gordon, married for ten years, but not beginning to drift apart. Beth was a charming girl. She has become a too widely wife and bores her husband with her excessive solitude for his comfort.

Too late Beth discovers why she has lost her husband and, blossoming like a rose, develops into society's gayest figure. Sally, the other hand, is transformed by marriage into a worse household drudge and scold than Beth ever was.

local men are named as contemplated victims. Fischer's Case.

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 18.—Dr. Wm. L. Russell, medical superintendent of the Bloomingdale Hospital, said today that Edward P. Fischer, had been confined at the hospital about 1908 for about eighteen months and again in 1916 for approximately the same length of time.

On each occasion, Dr. Russell said, he has been committed to the hospital by his sister. Dr. Russell said the records showed Fischer was suffering from "mania depressive psychosis," was at times violent and used strong language.

SOME MINERS BALK AT ORDER TO WORK

Hazleton, Pa., Sept. 18.—Although resumption of operations in the anthracite coal region had been expected on Monday as a result of a telegram received from Secretary of Labor Wilson by the policy committee of United Mine Workers promising to consider the claims of the miners if they returned to work, indications were that some of the local unions would refuse to obey the proclamation.

The first group of miners to balk was at Harwood, where it was voted yesterday afternoon. No statement was prepared by the miners, but they had had cars placed on sidings to receive the coal.

They posted copies of the proclamation at all collieries and appealed to the men not to wait until Monday to return to work.
