

Rubber Will Cost More

Every indication points to an early increase in the price of Rubber Goods. Some manufacturers have already advanced prices. Our stores (the Rexall Stores), are sole agents in this city for the Real Rubber Line, including the Maximum, Monogram, Roxbury and American Beauty brands.

The public is hereby assured that these Rubber Goods will not be advanced in price as long as the present large stock, both of the Rexall Stores and the factories hold out.

SAYS BURNS IS HER ASSAILANT

Young Woman Attacked in River View Park

PRISONER DENIES IT

Preliminary Examination on Serious Charge Begins in Police Court—Miss Earle Tells of Attack

Michael Burns was brought before the police court this morning to face a serious charge, that of attacking a young woman of Prospect street last night, in Douglas avenue near River View park. A preliminary examination was begun before Magistrate Ritchie. Miss Lillian Earle told the court of a dastardly attack made on her early in the evening as she was coming through River View park. She said she saw three men sitting on a seat in the park, and that one dashed under the shade of a tree and caught her as she passed. She got away from him, but he followed her across the street and caught her again. She jabbed him with her hatpin, and then walked along. He followed her, however, down toward "Main street." She called for help, but was caught again and thrown against a stone wall. Her head was forced back into some lilac bushes and her assailant put his hand across her throat, so that she could not call out. She struggled and stabbed him again with her hatpin and was positive that she struck him two or three times in the left cheek. She finally managed to cry out again and this time the assailant, whom she positively identified to be the defendant, left her. She then met Frank Cunard, whom she knew well, and together they went to lay a complaint with the police. They met Policeman Briggs soon afterwards and it was not long until he and Sergeant Smith had Burns under arrest on suspicion.

When he was brought into court this morning Burns positively denied that he was the man, saying that he had not been in Douglas avenue since his little girl was buried a few weeks ago. The prisoner's face was scratched on both cheeks and Miss Earle said she knew he was the man who attacked her. She also said she had known him before when in Milford and said that about two years ago he was charged with having attacked a Syrian woman in Fairville.

Miss Earle showed a bruise under her left ear which she said was a result of the attack. She showed a piece of a hatpin about two inches long, which she said she found this morning near the scene of the struggle where her hatpin was broken in her efforts to beat off the assailant. The rest of the hatpin she handed over to the police.

Frank Cunard said he had known Miss Earle for a long time. When he saw her in Douglas avenue about five minutes after the attack he found her crying and she told her story. He told of going with her to notify the police.

The prisoner is a man about thirty-five years of age. He was remanded.

EXPECT INTERESTING SESSION OF COUNTY COUNCIL THIS AFTERNOON

The quarterly meeting of the municipal council is being held this afternoon in the court room. It is expected that the council will discuss the proposals to make a cash grant for the patriotic fund or the Belgian relief fund or both. It is reported that other matters of a more interesting nature will be dealt with and the meeting may develop some unusual features.

BONDS GO WELL

The city bonds which have been offered for sale in small lots to suit purchasers have proved so popular that there is every prospect that they will be over subscribed. Mayor Frink said this morning that the response had been even more prompt and more generous than had been anticipated. For the benefit of those who wish to secure a share of the issue he is warning them that they would have to make application immediately. The hearty reception accorded to the new policy maintaining the city debentures is the best possible endorsement of the departure from the old methods.

SEELY-McALLISTER

A pretty wedding took place in the Lorneville Presbyterian church on Wednesday, Sept. 30, when Miss Bessie, eldest daughter of Mr. Alexander McAllister, was united in marriage to William P. Seely. Rev. Dr. J. A. Morrison of Carleton officiated. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Martha and the groom was supported by Mr. A. C. Smith. The ushers were Arthur Purdy and Frederick Stevens. About one hundred guests were present at the ceremony, after which a dainty wedding supper was served.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was nicely attired in ivory satin with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her sister as bridesmaid was gowned in blue silk trimmed with shadow lace. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. John Armstrong, cousin of the bride, presided at the organ. Many handsome remembrances of the event were received, hinting to the popularity of the bride and groom. The ushers received silver stick pins, the groomsmen a pearl stick pin and the bridesmaid a pearl ring. Mr. and Mrs. Seely will reside in West St. John.

This charter was made some time ago and the vessel is now loading. Sch. Ninetta M. Forella, 466 tons, Bridgewater, N. S., to Baltimore (pullywood, 82 a cord, loaded and discharged. British star. Montrose, 284 tons, trans-Atlantic trip, p. 1. Delivery New York, Providence.

WAR MAY MEAN HEAVIER CUT OF PULP WOOD HERE

One of the benefits which this part of the country is likely to reap from the European war situation is an increase in the cut of pulp-wood in New Brunswick and also an increase in the freight receipts on the I. C. R. from the hauling of this commodity.

The imports of pulp from Europe to the United States have been of large proportions and it is inevitable that the war will have the effect of reducing the shipments from the other side in some degree, and, possibly, to a very large extent.

If this is the case the manufacturers will have to look elsewhere for their supplies and the pulp mills on this side of the ocean will benefit proportionately. Owing to the growing scarcity of pulp-wood in the United States, Canada may be looked upon to supply much of the additional quantity required. New Brunswick should get a substantial share of the business.

During the last year the pulp manufacturing trade in the United States was at a rather low level and any improvement from ordinary causes should help to stimulate the purchase of raw material in New Brunswick, apart from the effect of the war upon the business.

FAIRVILLE NEWS

Belgian Relief—Brotherhood Lines to Be Broadened—The Baseball Boys

As many Fairville people do not seem quite clear as to the arrangements made in connection with the Belgian Relief Fund, some explanation may be of interest. The various ministers were asked to announce a definite location where contributions were to be received, by the Belgian Relief Committee of the maritime provinces, of which both Sir Robert Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier are honorary members.

When these gifts are collected notification must be sent to a temporary committee in care of the Acadia Coal Co., Shelburne, N. S., who will submit instructions as to special transportation on railroads. Definite shipping advice and tags also will be provided. The Acadia Coal Co. is reported partly controlled by Belgian capitalists and has some of these countrymen on its official staff and among the workmen, so they have offered to take charge of the contributions until permanent arrangements can be worked out.

Clothing, bedding (particularly blankets), and food of a nature that will keep are suggested as suitable gifts. The receiving depot for Fairville is the Fairville Drug Store.

The Fairville Brotherhood met last evening for the first time this season and voted on preliminary organization for the winter work. The following officers were elected: President, Rev. Gilbert Earle; vice-president, Stephen H. Shaw; secretary, Perry Kelly; treasurer, Walter Fincher. A committee composed of Messrs. Stout, Fitzsimmons, O'Brien, Ellworthy and the president was appointed to draw up a new constitution on broader lines than at present and the meeting of next week is to be devoted to a general discussion as to the means of making the brotherhood a force of consequence in community life.

A group of baseballers were on hand last evening, giving final touches to the Temperance Hall, where the boys are to smoke the pipe of peace tonight after the hard fought battles of the season recently closed. An interesting programme has been prepared. The "Boys" will receive the Baxter cup, of which they are now permanent owners, having led the league both in 1913 and 1914.

THE COMMON COUNCIL

On account of the meeting of the municipal council, the common council meeting, which was postponed from yesterday, will not be held this afternoon. As there is little business to come before the council there is no great rush about arranging for it.

TWO SLIGHT FIRES

The North End fire department was called upon today to respond to alarms from boxes 122 and 123 for fires which did but little damage. The first was in a house in Kennedy street owned by Charles McKinnon. There was a little blaze in the roof near the chimney. The second was in Ames street in a house owned by Mrs. Crockett. In both places the fires were extinguished with little difficulty.

LUDLOW STREET CHURCH

The annual rally of the Young People's Society of Ludlow street Baptist church, West End, was held last evening at about 8:00 p.m. The president, Miss Ermine G. Cochrane, presided and welcomed the visitors J. Percy Cruikshank and Robt. T. Mawhinney sang solos and the Junior Endeavor League gave a chorus. A large number responded to the roll call. Rev. P. P. Davidson delivered a very helpful and inspiring address on Loyalty. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the speaker and those taking part. This was the largest and most successful rally the society has yet held. They are looking forward to excellent fall and winter work.

FURS

Some one has said that furs make a plain woman beautiful and a beautiful woman ravishing. That may be a bit of poetic extravagance, but there is no question but furs enhance the costume and add to the beauty of the face.

The average woman does not buy furs as she does a new hat—with the thought that if it is not satisfactory she can easily get another. She buys them after careful consideration and selection, because it means a large expenditure of money and, therefore, must be made to last several seasons.

It is also true that the average woman does not know very much concerning fur value. It is, therefore, necessary that she buys from only reliable fur dealers. In the advertising columns of the Telegram and the Times are to be seen the announcements of fur sales by reliable merchants in almost every edition.
