STRING OF HOTELS ACROSS THE DOMINION

One million and a quarter dollars will be spent by an English syndicate, represented here by Erny H. Ford, of the Ford Iron Company, in the establishment of a chain of summer hotels within a short run of the principal cities of the Dominion. The first to be built will be a handsome office of stone at Sennerville, immediately opposite the summer residence of Sir Edward Clouston. There are two wide rights of way to the Lake of the Two Mountains, one on either side of Sir Edward's property.

It is proposed to build hotels near Toronto, Ottawa, Vancouver, Winnipeg, and other centres as the commercial cities progress.

Mr. Ford is the Canadian representative of the Ford Iron Company, 485 St. James street. While in England last year a syndicate was formed for the purpose of placing their money in propositions in Canada. The promoters are men who have enjoyed the week-end outings of Brighton and other English well-known centres and they decided after a long conference to build summer hotels in Canada. Each hotel will be of stone and fireproof through out. It will cost by the time it is finished and opened about $125,000.

Mr. Ford said that "Our first hotel will be ready for occupation this summer." "Are you figuring on coming into the city?" he was asked.

"Let's get going in the country first," he replied, but there are many rumors as to bigger things than those admitted by Mr. Ford.
