WARD ROOMS SHOWS EVERYONE CONFIDEN

Great Numbers of Workers Out Each Evening, New Recruits With Every Day and Everything Going With Swing That Means Big Victory

If there were a shadow of doubt existing in the mind of any voter as regards the party with which he should cast his vote to be on the winning side, he would be a doubter no longer if he paid a visit to any of the Liberal ward rooms about the city, and saw the numbers of men working on committees, busily engaged in matters essential to the conducting of a matters essential to the conducting of a matter odo, and all go about it with a vim and enthusiasm which inspire confidence. There is no question as to the success of Hon. Dr. Pugsley and James Lowell, Liberal candidates, at the polls on September 21.

In North End the work is being proceeded with in a systematic manner and with an air of victory. In the Temple of Honor Hall each evening may be found the workers of Lorne, Lansdowne, and Stanley, going over the lists, making preparations for the "big day" and in every way.

The same is true in Dufferin ward, where the ward-workers assemble in the hall at 609 Main street, and in Victoria ward, where the Victoria rink is the rendexous of the committees. The rooms are open each evening, and not only committees workers are there, but other people interested in the comming elections visit the ward rooms, and smoke a friendly pipe while they discuss the situation.

In Prince ward room at 22 Waterloos street, and in Kings at 85 Union street, industrious workers give their services each evening to the work of the campaign 15 makes the welcome to Sir Wilfrid a rousing one. New orkers are ioning the association of a ward of the campaign 15 makes the worker are confident that they are the workers are confident that they will assend the workers are confident that they will have large majorities for the Liberal candidates in their ward. Timothy Collins is appointed chairman of the ward and Fred J. McDonald secretary. The ward workers have secured a large delegation to take part in the two-light procession on Monday night, and will do much in helping in the fight. They also will turn out in large numbers of the work of the c street, and in Kings at 85 Union street, industrious workers give their services each evening to the work of the campaign. It is a fact in these wards as in Queens,

A very pleasant evening was spent, with dancing and music. Refreshments were also served.

MRS. JORDAN'S PLANS

By H. L. Spencer

Some years ago a writer in the Times, who was termed by the editor "The Philosopher of Kennebeccasis Bay," not infrequently alluded to a trio of spruce trees that stood by the roadside near his abode. They were very beautiful, and very sociable trees, when they thought there were no cavesdroppers about, but sometimes when the philosopher sat in their shade, silent, alone and unobserved, they conversed among themselves of passing events, and, of course, the philosopher listened, just as the curious sometimes listen at keyholes and near open windows.

Below the ground these trees were one, but at the surface three symmetrical and stately trees appeared, and they seemed proud of the broad and dark shadow which their interlocked branches cast upon the ground. The philosopher tells we that the principal in an interesting social event in the near future.

Mrs. J. C. Jordan, of River Glade, N. B., arrived in the city last night and at 11.30 this morning had a conference with Premier Hazen in regard to the repairs that will be made to the property at River Glade. Arrangements are now being made to secure better fire protection at the sanitarium. Spring water is used all over the institution, but it is likely that a main will be run from the river nearby for fire purposes.

The institution will possibly be opened in the silent churchyard of St. Paul. "Will she blossom again, as the roses de?" questioned one. "Who can tell us?" answered another. "No one can predict with certainty his own or his brother's fate," ejaculated the third.

After a little whispered conversation which the philosopher was unable to interpret, they sang a hymn, as tender as the hymns of the Autumn wind, "To the memory of Little Florence."
