Posse Trails
Negro Gunman
Caught at Theft Douglas Enters House and, Shoots Five People.

Possemen at the heels of bloodhounds early today were pressing hard on the trail of Louis Douglas, a negro, wanted for shooting and wounding five persons at the home of Sam Haston, in Spencer, Tenn., yesterday. Sam Haston, brother of Ernest Haston, Tennessee's secretary of state, members of his family and neighbors were at the death bed of Mrs. Sam Haston, when Douglas, said to be an ex-convict, was caught in an attempt to rob a corn crib near the home. Angered at having been reproved, the negro appeared at the Haston home with a shotgun. He called Sam Haston and

TOO ILL TO BE TOLD OF WEALTH AWAITING HER
Sister of Late "Tennessee" Claffin Will Share in $2,500,000 Fortune
New York, March 9.—Because of her failing health, Mrs. Polly Claffin Spurr remains in ignorance of the news that she is to share in the $2,500,000 fortune left by her sister, Lady Frances Cook, better known as "Tennessee" Claffin. Her nurse feared to tell her because of her excitable condition after four years' confinement with a broken hip, in a wheel chair.
In 1877 Mrs. Spurr financed her sister Miss Tennie C. Claffin, and Victoria Woodhill, when the two went to London on a "woman's rights" tour. The trip ended in a double romance, Miss Claffin marrying Sir Francis Cook and Miss Woodhill marrying the wealthy John Martin.
Mrs. Spurr saved in 1910 to recover the $500,000 advanced to finance the trip, but the case was settled out of court. Lady Cook died without making a will and her $2,500,000 estate will be divided among eight relatives.
Be tactless and you'll soon be friendless.—Forbes Magazine (N. Y.).
