PROSPECTUS.

The Colonial Empire,

A Political and Complereiul Weekly, Semi-Weekly, and They Erkly NEWSPA-PER—to be published in the City of Saint John N. B., commencing January 1st, 1861.

MONG the fleading objects of advocacy contemplated by this Journal are—Union of the Colonies—involving Inter-Colonial Free Trade, a Uniform Tariff, Currency, &c., &c. Railway Extensions—Inter-Colonial, and connection with the United States.

Fducation—a liberal and comprehepsive system of Education adapted to the wants of the councry. Reform in our Commercial Institutions and Relations.

Agricultural, Mochanical and Manufacturing

Povelopement of our Mines, Minerals, and Fisheries.

This Journal will be Independent in the expression of its opinions, on Political as well as on all other questions; and while advocating cularged and comprehensive (riews of Public, measures will genore all Sec onal, Sectarian, and Political, partizans).

British North America is possessed of vast resources, and has Geographical and Political, partizans of the partial partizans of the partiza peets highly favored, and we need but a vigorous and collightened public policy to effect a most progressive development. To continue is, a course of narrow sellish partizanship, with no higher sian than the petry aggrardizement or pecuniary gain of unpained politicians, must soon make ship-wreck of all our best interests, if indeed it be possible to excape from the impending bankruptey and rule which already stere us in the face. But we believe there is wisdom, courage, vir us—paricolism enough in our Country to wave it; and while it will be our vocation to sound the toesi, and of sm enough in our country to save it; and white it will be our vocation to sound the toosi; and arouse the propole to a scale of the dangers to which we have referred, we will also afford a rallying point for the good and wise of all-parties and creeds, who desire the overview of a system of corruption and extravagance, and the es abrishment of sound Liberal and Progressive Political ment of some relation and Progressive Political and Commercial principles.

With all faith in these convertors and sentiments—and believing that the beart of the country mace, citron. Essences.

will respond to them—we just up our flag and not it to the mast head, writing upon its ample folds our mot o—
