

Cross examined by Government.

I came into town about 5:30 p.m. Had a few drinks - ^{and} something to eat - Canyon the truck name. As far as I know the wine was dangerous but can't answer for anyone else in camp. Knew accused since Aldershot about 1 1/2 months. We ^{were} ~~were~~ not particularly friendly. The whole platoon had planned to go into town with us. I was pretty worried about the accused when I saw him. He knew me well enough to know my name. He was stumbling all over the road. He wasn't sick when I saw him. No one else with him. We finally got him on truck - thought he was on the truck. Later found he was not on the truck.

The accused was drunk. He asked me to go with him about 10 minutes. I saw most of the place. I was trying to coax him to come with me. He stopped a jeep.
