

RALPH SMITH VISITS ISLANDS

LIBERAL M. P. GETS GOOD RECEPTION

Reviews Work Done By Laurier Government—Disunion Among Conservatives.

Pender Island, Sept. 2.—On Monday morning last, Ralph Smith, member for Nanaimo, started on a flying visit through the islands. He arrived on Pender Island about 11 a. m. After partaking of the good things, which some friends had waiting on him, he immediately set out to visit some voters on South Pender. He was well received everywhere, and the people seemed greatly pleased with his representation of their wishes in the Ottawa House. He returned to Pender Island (north) about 7:30 and at 8 o'clock held a meeting in the schoolhouse. It was the largest political meeting ever seen on the island (some coming from Saturna Island and South Pender to attend), and its unanimity was only broken by the querulous voice of Spencer Percival, "the rejected of Lady Smith."

A. H. Mendes occupied the chair on the motion of Alan Porter. The chairman, in introducing Mr. Smith, thanked the meeting for the honor they had conferred upon him, and went on to say that they had with them that evening one who had faithfully represented them for eight years in the Dominion House of Parliament. He heard a great deal of talk these days about better terms, but neither Mr. Borden or Mr. McBride could give them any better terms than they were getting at present, because the Dominion government had never refused them a request yet (applause), and he believed they had never asked the government for anything unreasonable. He had great pleasure in calling upon Mr. Smith, who, he believed, could give a good account of his stewardship.

Mr. Smith, who on rising, was received with loud applause, then proceeded to deal with some facts regarding Canada's prosperity under the Liberal regime. He showed very clearly that this prosperity was due chiefly to the good management of the nation's affairs and the immigration policy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. "There were some people in these days who talk a great deal about economy. What was true economy? Was it taking money and burying it in the earth (or in the treasury) to save it? No. That was Tory policy. True economy, in his opinion, was money well spent, to bring in good returns. That was the Liberal policy, and they knew themselves which policy Canada had prospered under."

Mr. Smith also dealt with the railway question, the Japanese question, and the tariff. He concluded his speech by declaring himself a supporter of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's policy against that put forward by the Tories. He said: "The Liberals are going back to Ottawa again, with a good working majority, and it will be your honor, your credit and your interests that you have helped to return them there." (Loud applause.)

Mr. Percival, who was before the Conservative convention a few weeks ago as a candidate for nomination, was then given an opportunity to speak. He spoke for a few moments on Oriental immigration, and wound up by declaring himself disgusted with both Liberals and Conservatives. He said: "There is only one party in the field with a fixed policy, and that is the Socialist party. If he had said the Anarchist party there could not have been greater laughter, anyhow it will be interesting to see how Mr. Hawthornthwaite and his new recruit get along together."

On the motion of Mr. Corbett, seconded by Howard Harris, a hearty vote of thanks was passed to Mr. Smith for his very interesting address. Mr. Smith suitably replied and the meeting concluded by singing God Save the King.

Mr. Smith is also visiting Mayne, Galiano and Saturna Island before returning home to Nanaimo this week.

MAKE PROTEST.

W. C. T. U. Executive Pass Resolution Against Liquor Prizes.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

The executive of the Victoria branch of the W. C. T. U. at a meeting held on Tuesday passed the following resolution embodying a protest against liquor prizes being given as prizes for athletic sports:

"Resolved that this Executive hereby expresses its sincere regret at learning that intoxicating liquors are to be given as prizes in certain of the games among the sports of Labor day, to be held under the auspices of the labor unions of the city, and believing as we do that intoxicating liquors have ever been the worst enemy of the cause of labor, as well as of the home, hereby express its protest against such prizes being offered, and respectfully urge the labor unions of the city to refuse all such donations in future."

The executive committee of the Citizens League has taken a similar stand.

CROOK MAKES FORTY DOLLARS EASY MONEY

Passes Worthless Cheque on Fort Street Merchant and Gets Away.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

The police are at present on the lookout for a man who on Saturday last obtained $40 in cash from Bailey & Bloomquist grocers, Fort street, by means of a forged cheque. The man bought about $20 worth of groceries in Bailey & Bloomquist's store late in the afternoon, presenting in payment a cheque for $60 on the Bank of Montreal, signed "C. J. Sarney," and receiving the difference in cash. The cheque proved worthless and now the firm which cashed it as well as the police are looking for the man who got the money on it.

At the time that he made the purchases he gave his address as 156 Rae street, to which address he asked that the goods be sent on Monday as he was going camping. There is no such number, but C. E. Sarney lives at 758 Rae street and accordingly inquiries were made of him regarding the matter, but he had not bought any groceries and much less had he paid for them with a worthless cheque.

The man who secured the money is described as middle-aged, and of most respectable appearance. He was of dark complexion and clean shaven. One of his lower front teeth was gone and the remainder were heavily gold-filled.

BIG INCREASE IN STREET-CAR TRAFFIC

Figures for First Eight Months of 1908 Show Gain Over Last Year.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

The figures showing the passengers handled on the Victoria lines of the B. C. Electric Company for the first eight months of the year as compared with the same period last year, are as follows:

Month	1908	1907
January	228,200	271,886

May	480,924	321,093
June	425,639	327,526
July	449,778	380,552
August	438,121	355,691

Total (8 months) 3,101,413 2,472,254. These figures show an increase of 628,159 or over 25 per cent. As will be noticed, every month this year shows a great gain over the corresponding month of last year and is an indication of the steady way in which the city's population has been increasing. The big increase during the summer months is especially noticeable.

St. Andrew's Society Band Rendered Entertaining Programme.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

St. Andrew's Society pipe band gave a concert last night at the Home for the Aged and Infirm. Among those present were: Mayor Hall, Alderman McKeown, chairman of the Home committee, Alderman Norman, P. J. Riddell, president of the band, and Rev. Dr. Campbell, who congratulated the pipers upon their splendid reputation as a musical organization, and spoke of the important place the pipes had filled in the making of Scotch history.

John Dobbie, A. Harbenson and Mrs. Crawford assisted the band with vocal selections, and also by playing a number of a "special request" number from Pipe Major McIvor came in for a great deal of applause.

After the programme, John McIntosh, manager of the Home, thanked the pipers heartily for the concert.

CHILLIWACK FIGHTS OVER "DRY" LAW QUESTION

Vote Taken on Matter Results in Favor of Licenses.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Chilliwack, Sept. 2.—A hot fight is in progress between the temperance people and the advocates of licenses in the new city of Chilliwack. This has always been a "dry" town, but since the incorporation of the place into a city, many persons have insisted in favor of the issuance of licenses.

Last Saturday a plebiscite on the question was taken. The result was 71 in favor of licenses, and 19 against. On the other hand the temperance people declare that even this showing is rendered nugatory because of the fact that the city charter provides no power to issue licenses.

If any attempt to sell liquor is made, the temperance people threaten that they will initiate prosecutions, just as if the plebiscite had never been taken.

SCHOOL REPORTS SHOW INCREASE

OVER ENROLMENT OF PREVIOUS YEAR

47 More Pupils at High School and 44 at Victoria West.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

There is a considerable all-round increase this year in the number of scholars attending the city schools, the total enrolment, so far this year, being 2,770 as compared with the 2,652 of last year.

The largest increase is at the High school, where there is an addition of 47 pupils. There is a decrease of 24 in the Girls' Central and 23 in the South Park school, but this is accounted for by the fact that many of the junior pupils who were accustomed to attend this school are now being accommodated at the Kingston street school. The Victoria West school shows a very high increase, there being an addition this year of 44 pupils, and there is a marked increase in the Girls' Central and the North Ward.

The enrolment at the city schools this year compared with last is as follows:

Honors were comparatively even in the first round, and in the second Lang knocked Burns off his feet with a heavy swing. Burns came back in the third and put the Australian on the floor several times before the latter was counted out in the sixth. Squires issued another challenge to the champion.

TURNER FINED FOR JOSTLING ON STREET

Annoys Harold Allen and is Multited by the Magistrate.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

William Turner was this morning fined $5 or in default two days in jail for assaulting Harold Allen by jostling him and poking him in the ribs with his elbow. The assault took place on Government street while two members of the police force were standing close by and, according to Allen, was deliberate and unprovoked. Turner crossing the sidewalk to commit it. There has been bad blood between the two for a year or so and the opinion of the court was that Turner had jostled Allen simply for the purpose of annoying him. Allen, it may be said, got even at the time by smacking his assailant on the cheek with his fist. The marks of the blow were still quite visible in court to-day.

Allen's story was that as he was walking along on the inside of the sidewalk on Government street opposite the Excelsior hotel he met Turner who was coming up on the outside of the sidewalk. Turner deliberately crossed the sidewalk and jostled him at the same time digging him in the ribs with his elbow. There was no crowd on the street at the time and there was no reason why Turner should have crossed the sidewalk. He had followed Turner and had hit him. This was several times that Turner had annoyed him this way recently within the past few weeks. There had been bad blood between them for more than a year.

P. K. Bradley, driver of the patrol wagon, was standing on the sidewalk at the time and saw Turner bump into Allen.

Turner swore that two years ago Allen had chased him out of his office on Yates street, through Wilson's store, and that he had been continually annoying him. He denied that he had bumped into Allen on the occasion in question.

Constable Wes. Harper was called, but could not throw any additional light on the subject.

Magistrate Jay said it was quite evident that Turner was going out of his way to annoy Allen and he would fine him $5 or in default two days.

Phillip Chalk, who had been convicted of drunkenness so often that the police have lost all count of the number of times he was, meekly acknowledged that he had taken, on too much cargo last night and was fined $5 or in default five days in jail.

Some years ago the police counted up the number of convictions registered against Phillip and found that they were 170. Since then he has been making donations to the magistrate regularly and has his nearest competitors beaten a mile in the race for the longest list of convictions.

James Gray, who is apparently training for an attempt to some day beat out Phillip's record, occupied the next seat to his rival in the dock this morning.

U. S. COURT MARTIAL. Washington, D. C., Sept. 2.—By direction of the President, a general court martial, embracing in its membership Major General, Brigadier and six Colonels, will meet at Fort Wayne, Mich., on Sept. 28th, for the trial of such persons as may be brought before it. Major General Frederick D. Grant will head the court. Great secrecy is maintained at the war department as to the names of the officers to be ordered before the court for trial, but in view of the high rank of the officers comprising the court, the assumption is that the proposed trial or trials involves an officer or officers of a higher rank than that of captain.

INDUCTION OF REV. R. W. COLLINS

INTERESTING CEREMONY CONNECTED WITH IT

New Pastor of St. Arden and Gordon Head Introduced.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

On Tuesday evening of this week the presbytery of Victoria met at St. Arden's church, Cedar Hill, to install the newly elected pastor, Rev. R. Wallace Collins, into the pastorate of the congregations of St. Arden and Gordon Head. The church was well filled with a bright, intelligent congregation, and the ceremony was very interesting. The Rev. Joseph McCoy, M. A., moderator of session, presided, narrated the steps leading up to the call, and put the questions of the formula to Mr. Collins, and in a neat address on the cordiality of Presbyterians inducted the new minister into his charge.

The Rev. W. L. Clay preached a practical sermon from the text John 1:42: "He brought him to Jesus." "The essence of Christianity is not adherence to creed or observance of rite but personal friendship with Christ. The original disciples were won through acquaintance with Christ ripening into friendship. Doctrine and polity thought important, were secondary."

"To Jesus men must still be brought, for among all our wise teachers and philanthropists none but He can touch the motive of action and transform character. In the multitude of present day sociological and political theories for the betterment of mankind it is the more imperative for the pulpit to declare that there is no other name under heaven given among men where by we can be saved but the name of Jesus."

"He who was then brought to Jesus was Simon Peter, who in consequence of this introduction became not only a disciple, but an apostle, who first opened the door of the Christian church to the Gentile world and to whom we owe a considerable portion of the New Testament, who has laid the world under obligation to him. What marvelous power is in the friendship of Christ to transform a Galilean fisherman into a world helper!"

"He who brought Simon to Jesus was Andrew, who, but a few hours before, had been introduced to Jesus by John the Baptist. He soon showed the influence of Christ's friendship but his anxiety to bring others to know Him. Wherever Andrew appears on the page of scripture he is bringing some one to Jesus. This is the normal condition of Christian discipleship."

The most serious heresy of to-day is not divergence from creedal standards but divergence from this normal condition of discipleship, indifference to the state of others."

"Andrew was not only acquainted with Christ but he was also related to Peter his own brother. Every influence of kinship or acquaintance should be engaged in the service of grace to bring men to Jesus."

Rev. Dr. Campbell, moderator pro tem, of the presbytery, addressed the newly inducted pastor. He congratulated him on being called to so important

OXOMULSION GOOD FOR BABY!

A thin, puny baby will contract every disease known to infants, for it lacks vitality to stem the tide of sickness. It needs something more than the mother's milk. Doctors know this and commend OXOMULSION, for it contains the flesh, bone and muscle forming elements so necessary to the growing child. The formula is given with every bottle. OXOMULSION is pleasant to the taste and baby will take it as readily as it will milk. Insist upon having OXOMULSION, for no other emulsion is as good. For sale by all druggists in two sizes, 35c and $1.00. Prepared only by The Oxomulsion Co., corner Spadina and Phoebe Streets, Toronto. If baby ails, write us for advice.

ant and interesting a field of labor, and said, inter alia: "Do not neglect your studies for it is a known fact when the priest under the Old Testament neglected the study of the law of God, the people neglected to practice it. That is an true story and it is then. In the pulpit you must do your best work, and if you fail there, faithfulness in other departments of your work will not compensate for it. It is well to please men, but do not too much try the impossibility, but do your duty. When Satan entered into Judas, it was impossible for Christ himself to please him. This is an age in which the tendency is away from a man by his worldly possessions. You must teach men to be honest rather than rich. It does not follow that because a man is rich he is dishonest, but it is better to be poor and honest than rich and dishonest. Some may try to drag you into their political party strife, as the Pharisees did Jesus when they asked, 'Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not?' You know the wise answer he gave, and it is wisdom for you to follow his example. You will no doubt have some sick in your flock. They are prisoners of Jesus Christ, who are confined to their homes, and cannot attend your public services. Whomsoever you neglect, do not neglect them. When you call to see them bring with you sunshine and cheer, and a morsel of the manna from above. This is an age when the church has a tendency to hand over the poor to the Salvation Army and the sick to the lodge, thus drifting away from her divine mission. See to it that the sick and the poor are attended to. You will not be held responsible for the actual saving of all under your care, but you will be held responsible for making use of the best means to lead them into the Kingdom of God. If any parish it must not be because you have not tried to save them."

The Rev. D. MacRae addressed the congregation, and gave a very interesting historical sketch of the field from the time the Rev. Mr. McGregor, of St. Andrew's church, began services there until the present. This field was for some years past of Mr. MacRae's own charge, and the faithful work he did there is now bearing fruit. He spoke in the highest terms of those who had followed him in the work, as the late Professor Morrison, Mr. Forster, Mr. Fraser, Mr. McCoy, and others.

After the induction the ladies right royally entertained all present with refreshments.

The Rev. R. Wallace Collins is a graduate of the Presbyterian College of Belfast, Ireland. He is a man about 35 years of age, of fine personal presence, well educated, and a good preacher. He enters on his duties with much promise, and the prospects are exceedingly bright. That part of the country is fast filling in with good, industrious people, and developing into a fine agricultural and fruit growing territory. The people are to be congratulated on making such a good selection for the minister, and the minister is to be congratulated on having such a fine class of people under his pastoral oversight.

BURGLARS SHOOT DOWN PURSUERS, THEN ESCAPE. Detective and Patrolman Dangerously Wounded in Sudden Attack.

St. Louis, Sept. 3.—Chief of Detectives Gill, of East St. Louis, and Patrolman Ransome Paine were shot to-day while trying to trap burglars in the home of Philip Wolff, treasurer of the St. Clair Company, East St. Louis. Gill was shot through the mouth and Paine was wounded twice, one bullet penetrating the left side near the heart. Both men were taken to a hospital, where Paine is at the point of death.

In response to a "Yone" message from the Wolff home to the effect that burglars were in the dwelling, Gill, Paine and a policeman hurried to the place and surrounded the home. Two men immediately came from the rear of the Wolff home and began to fire at the officer. The attack was so sudden that the men had practically no chance to return the fire, and both fell, the burglars escaping.

PRONOUNCED OPTIMISM. Vancouver, Sept. 2.—General Manager Pease, of the Royal Bank of Canada, is in town. He thinks Canada and the West especially is making recovery from the existing depression. A good crop is practically assured. He expressed the opinion that, had the 1907 crop been good British Columbia would not have felt the slump at all.
