PROHIBIT EXPORT OF SILVER.
LIMA, Peru, Nov. 12.—Although there exists no law to the contrary, the government today refused to allow a local firm of bankers to ship 12,000
silver soles (about $12,000) to London.
Furthermore the authorities are searching the baggage of passengers leaving

The price of silver in Peru is rising and the ministry of finance has been in conference with local bankers, financiers, merchants and members of congress
to discuss action in the premises.
The advisability of an export duty on silver coin has been seriously discussed.

FRENCH COURT GRANTS ABSOLUTE DIVORCE TO COUNTESS CASTELLANE.

She is Given the Custody of the Children But May Not Take Them From France Without the Count's Consent—His Appeal for Annual Cash Allowance Was Rejected.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—The tribunal of first instance of the Seine, Judge Ditté presiding, at noon today granted a divorce to the Countess De Castellane (formerly Anna Gould) and gave her the custody of her children, who, however, will not be allowed to be taken from France without the consent of their father, Count Boni De Castellane. The end of the famous case came suddenly. The court brushed aside the demand of the Count's lawyers for an examination of the witnesses, and, as anticipated, the public prosecutor did not ask to be heard. Directly the court assembled Judge Ditté handed down the judgment, which is a sweeping victory for the Countess, the custody of her children, the Count being allowed only the usual rights to see them and share in the control of their education, which was not contested. The Count is given the right to see the children at stated periods at the home of their grandmother and to keep them a month annually during the holidays. The Count's demand of an alimentary allowance of $50,000 annually was pronounced by the court to be without foundation in law and was rejected. The only point decided in the Count's favor is the imposition of an inhibition of the Countess to take the children out of France without their father's consent. The court appointed the president of the Chamber of Notaries to liquidate the affairs of the husband and wife. The judgment was given with costs against the Count. The decree, reading of which hardly consumed five minutes, was delivered by the judge slowly and hardly audibly to the crowds filling the court. Many women climbed the chairs in vain efforts to hear the decision and when they were aware that a divorce was granted they seemed actually to resent the loss of a public case at which people of social life would be compelled to testify. Anna Gould, the youngest daughter of the late Jay Gould, was married to Count Ernest Boniface De Castellane, the eldest son of the Marquis De Castellane, at the New York home of her brother, George J. Gould, March 4, 1885, the late Archbishop Corrigan officiating. Miss Gould's dowry was understood to have been $10,000,000, and it was further stated that her income was $500,000 a year. Immediately after the marriage the couple left the United States for France, where the extravagant manner in which they lived attracted considerable attention. About five years after the marriage the Count and Countess were reported to be financially embarrassed, it being alleged that the Count had already spent about $7,000,000 of his wife's money. An adjustment of their affairs became necessary, and considerable litigation followed, with the result that the Gould family intervened, and the income of the Countess was cut down to $300,000. On February 5 of the present year the Countess entered a plea for divorce before Judge Ditté in the court of First Instance of the Seine, and he, in conformity with the French law, endeavored to arrange a reconciliation before allowing a definite suit to proceed. The efforts to reconcile the couple were unsuccessful and sensational reports were circulated regarding the Count's conduct.

NEGRO DESPERADO STILL LEADING HIS PURSUERS A MERRY CHASE

THOMASTON, Me., Nov. 13.—At sunset tonight Minot St. Clair Francis, the negro desperado who broke jail yesterday, was still leading his pursuers, officers from the state prison, local officials and Knox county authorities by several miles, having covered in the first 24 hours of his freedom nearly twenty miles along the west bank of Penobscot Bay. When the hunt was temporarily abandoned tonight Francis was thought to be in the vicinity of Centre Point, five miles north of Camden. The search for the negro began in earnest this morning, and a few hours good progress was made in picking up the trail. An abandoned team which Francis stole last night was found, and about noon it was thought that the negro had been located on Ragged Mountain, one of the Camden hills. Before the mountain could be reached, however, word was received that Francis had been seen near the post house just outside Camden, and again the force of the searchers concentrated on the new trail. Every effort was made to catch up with the fugitive before darkness shut in, but he succeeded in keeping ahead of his pursuers. The postal authorities in Washington offered an additional $100 for Francis' capture today, which places the amount of reward at $200. The officers seemed very confident tonight that the negro would be in custody again inside of the next 24 hours. The chase will be renewed in the morning.

SHORTAGE OF LABOR IS FELT IN CUBA

Planters Urge Action to Secure Immigration—Sugar Crop Will Need Many More Men

HAVANA, Nov. 13.—Certain members of the Agrarian League, which is composed of prominent planters, accompanied by a number of steamship agents, held a conference with Governor Magon today on the question of the public scarcity of labor in the handling of the maturing sugar crop. The planters urge the necessity of making use of the $1,000,000 appropriated by the Cuban congress for the stimulation of immigration and pointed out that Cuba was suffering severely by the competition of other nations seeking immigration, especially the republics of South America and the United States, and the importation of labor to Panama. The next sugar crop promises to be very large and the planters expressed grave fears that the present labor supply would be insufficient to handle it. Governor Magon listened with great interest to the suggestions of his visitors and arranged to hold further conferences with the committee.

A horse owned by George S. Cosman fell on Rock street yesterday and was slightly injured. Superintendent Downie, of the C. P. R., visited the scene of operations on Union street, W. E., this morning. He thinks the work is progressing favorably.

THREE LIVES LOST IN TENEMENT FIRE

Business Man Fell Dead After Running to the Scene—A Whole Block Burned.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—A New Brunswick, N. J., despatch to the Times says:—Three deaths resulted from a fire here yesterday afternoon which destroyed several houses on Easton Avenue occupied by negroes. Two of the dead were children, while the other was a business man. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Doran, who lived in one of the houses, locked in their children, Frank and Susie, as was their custom every day while at work. The children playing with matches set fire to the house, and before neighbors could break the door down the children had perished. The flames spread to the adjoining houses and the whole block was fired. William Song, a business man, when the alarm of fire was sounded, left his business and hastened to the scene. He was the first to enter for the New York family and some of the property was near the fire. He returned to his store and to a customer, fell dead, the run having caused heart failure, physicians said.

1. GERTIE—Why, I believe that is George with his head through that hole in the fence.
MR. GURGLE—Sure it is! Hi, George! what are you doing?
2. GEORGE—Why, the man who owns this garden patch told me he had such wonderful cabbage that if you watched Intently for five minutes you could see them grow an inch.
3. GEORGE—But I couldn't see them grow at all. I suppose it is because my eyesight is so poor.
MR. GURGLE—Let me try it—my eyesight is absolutely perfect.
4. MR. GURGLE (after a five-minute watch)—Say, George, that fellow was stringing you. These cabbages can't be seen to grow at all.
