has brought a flutter of social excitement to several places in Digby county. Cupid was at the bottom of it all. All the principals are well known and popular. At Sandy Cove there was a double wedding, when Ruby P. More house, son of Capt. R. T. Morehouse was married to Miss Annle Crowell, and Omer Gidney to Miss Venecia Crowell, both daughters of William Crowell. At Bear River Edward C. Coggins of Westport was married to Miss Maye, daughter of Wallace Crouse.' At the same place Rev. Henry P. Patterson of Aylesford took to himself a bride, Miss Laura Graham, daughter of Wallace Graham. At Little River Egbert P. Morse of Paradise was married to Miss Mabel, daughter of Chipman Denton. At Westport Elmer Gower was joined in vedlock to Miss Edith Welch, daughter of Mrs. Wallace Welch, and at Weymouth Fred H. Lent was married to Miss Minnie Mullen, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Mullen.

The Imperial is the name of another new hostelry that will cater to Digby's ummer tourists. It is pleasantly and conveniently situated on the Smith's Cove side of the harbor, and its dining room will seat one hundred persons. B. J. Hunt is the enterprising proprietor, and on New Year's eve the house will be the scene of a grand ball, for which a great many have accepted invitations. Word received here states that Rev.

George F. Johnson, a former Presby-terian pastor here, has accepted a call to West Mount Presbyterian church, Montreal. The late Mrs. Almina Turnbull, Immense Audience in Germain Street Baptist Church Last Evening.

Listen to Their Beleved Pastor's Eloquent Farewell Address After Fifteen Years

of Faithful Service.

At Germain street Baptist clurch Sunday evening every seat was filled and chairs had to be placed along all than the gospel. Man cannot be legis-lated into morality, he said. To change the existing state of things we change the existing state of things we must have new conditions, and to establish new conditions we tiust have new men with new natures, and the gospel is the only instrument by which this revolution can be accomplished. The gospel is the panacea for all 'he ills of the body politic and social, and more earnestness and power is needed in its delivery. During his stay in St. John, the speaker said, his vulpit had hear dedicated solely to the proclam.

In its delivery. During his stay in St. John, the speaker said, his vulpit had been dedicated solely to the wroclamation of simple gospel truth.
In closing Dr. Gates said he had no formal address of farewell to give. He would speak his last words to the members of his church Monday eventing. "For the citizens of St. John," he continued, "I thank them personally for their great and never-failing kindness have I always received from both strangers and friends. I have learned to love them all, for though I am a Baptist I have ever a place in my heart for all who love and labor for Christ. It has been a great pleasure to me to assist them in helping on the kingdom, and I appreciate and respect the other denominations in this city for their hor of the cross and their love for the Master. I count it an honor to have labored with them, and shall always look back on my fifteen years of harmonious association here."

There is no spot in the old or new CHRISTMAS CLASS LISTS world so dear to me as the city of the Loyalists by the side of old Fundy. I Of Theological Department of Mount Allison University, 1900-1901.

Loyalists by the side of old Fundy. I love its streets, its bracing air, and the push and energy of its citizens. There is no better place in the world for the man who loves to work. and no city en the continent where the great heart of Christianity beats truer for what is good and pure and holy. I shall al-ways speak kindly of the citizens and especially of the press of St. John. I thank God for the religious and secu-lar press of this city, from the editors and reporters of which I have received mothing but kindness and courtesy, though perhaps they have given me too much attention of late. I do not know why I am going. When I have met my people of late I have had to choke back the tears while in their presence and hide in my room alone and give vent to my sourcow. But I have said I am going and I ex-pect to go. But they say that a tree which has been long rooted in ome place will not grow in a stranger soil. If this be so, maybe I shall return, I
