

AU FOYER

La religion bien comprise

Il y a quelques dimanches j'assistais à la messe à Van Buren. L'éloquent prédicateur traitait un sujet si vrai, et malheureusement trop souvent mal compris.

Que de gens bornent la religion catholique à la pratique de la prière et à la fréquentation aux offices religieux. Voilà qui est parfait mais ce ne sont là que des méthodes et pratiquent afin de stimuler la ferveur et conquérir l'esprit de charité qui est la base de notre sainte religion.

La charité envers le prochain, s'aimer les uns les autres, s'entre-aider, visiter la veuve et l'orphelin, multiplier les aumônes voilà la vraie religion.

Mais comme le disait le bon prédicateur de Van Buren que de personnes ont le chapellet dans la main et la critique sur les lèvres; elles fréquentent les sacrements, et rendues à la maison elles n'ont que médisance et calomnie à laisser entendre. Elles n'ont que du mal à dire de celui-ci ou celle-là, s'estiment meilleures que toutes, cherchent à amoindrir la réputation du prochain. Voilà des personnes qui ne comprennent pas leur religion et s'aventurent dans une voie fautive et dangereuse.

L'Amour de Dieu et l'Amour du Prochain voilà le fondement de la religion catholique. Si nous voyons des personnes qui nous semblent mal agir, pourquoi les décrier? est-ce le moyen de les ramener à de meilleurs sentiments? Hélas! non. Devons-nous les fuir, non plus.

Ne voyons-nous pas notre divin modèle Notre Seigneur Jésus-Christ s'approcher de la pécheresse Marie-Madeleine, et faire des pécheurs ses amis intimes. Ils leur glissent des paroles de charité et d'espérance, les visite souvent, et en fait des saints.

Suivons donc les traces de N. S. Jésus-Christ, ne méprisons jamais qui que ce soit et surtout n'osons jamais nous estimer plus vertueux qu'un autre, car demain nous serons peut-être plus bas.

N'oublions pas que nous sommes tous sous le joug de la tache originelle, tous soumis à la tentation, tous capables de chutes.

N'oublions pas non plus que nous sommes tous enfants de Dieu, frères en Jésus-Christ et que c'est en s'aimant les uns, les autres en s'entraidant charitablement que nous arriverons tous au séjour bienheureux de l'éternité.

Septembre

N'est-ce pas que c'est un bon mois que celui de septembre.

Aussi je l'aime bien. Le mois est si belle; vuys dans les champs les blés sont mûrs, les épis ont leur tête vers la terre, les fruits vermeils pendent au bord des arbres et semblent nous inviter gentiment à les cueillir. Et puis c'est aussi le temps des vendanges on voit des hommes et des femmes même des enfants emplier leurs paniers de magnifiques raisins qu'ils vont ensuite porter dans des celliers. Ils sont fiers de leur belle récolte. Enfin à la campagne, en septembre, tout est grand, robuste, tout est magnifique.

Oh! comment se fait il que l'homme puisse rester insensible devant de telles magnificences! Les vacances sont finies et cependant nous amène la joyeuse rentrée des classes.

Dans les rues, dans les tramways on sont des écoliers, des écolières qui jettent bruyamment, heureux de voir des compagnons aimés. A leur retour, ils ont l'air de dire: "Enfant, reviens à l'école, ton diligeant et sage comme l'abeille, la suche ne s'attend pas en septembre, la bête comme il faut froid, sur l'air de la vieillesse ont tu les corbeaux noirs."

A moi, septembre dit: "Jeune fille, considère le prix du temps; n'en perds pas une seconde car le temps c'est l'étoffe dont la vie est faite que chaque minute soit employée à la préparation de ton avenir."

Al-je toujours suivi ces conseils. Je ne saurais l'affirmer en tout cas ce dont je suis certaine c'est que je les suivrai mieux à l'avenir.

LETRES ET APPRECIATIONS

LETTRE DE SON EMINENCE

Archevêché de Québec, le 24 juin 1922.
Au Révérend Père Urbain-Marie Cloutier, O. F. M.
Missionnaire Apostolique au Japon.
Mon Bien cher Père,

Quelques heures de voyage m'ont permis de prendre connaissance du beau volume de vos "Propos Japonais", que votre Frère en religion le Père Bonaventure, a eu la délicatesse de me présenter en votre nom. Je me hâte de venir vous en offrir mes plus sincères et chaleureuses félicitations.

L'observation déjà faite est juste: ce sont là plus que de vains discours, de fugitives impressions de voyage; ce sont de très fortes études psychologiques d'un peuple intéressant, du plus intéressant, peut-être, des peuples païens. Et spécialement, ces pages nous manquent.

Mais maintenant nous les avons; et, ce qui est mieux, nous les tenons précédés d'une plume apte à nous les fournir.

Le Missionnaire, en effet, est par son séjour plus approfondi de la langue du peuple dont il parle comme aussi par ses relations individuelles plus intimes auxquelles il oblige son ministère de prédicateur, est certainement le personnage le mieux qualifié pour ces sortes d'études. En outre, l'angle de la foi le rend absolument sûr — sous lequel il se place, donne à ses observations, avec ce bon sens et cette simplicité de certitudes, attendent sagement d'autres bien-être.

Qui, mon Révérend Père, en la conviction, vos pages à la fois édifiantes et si bien écrites, ont été tout le succès de votre mission; elles ont été le fruit de votre grande expérience personnelle; une mission plus réfléchie, plus sympathique et par suite plus profitable à l'égard de ce peuple païen que nous nous freres missionnaires. Puis, agréablement qu'elles sont de tant d'intéressantes études, elles ne manqueront pas de captiver notre jeunesse étudiante.

et de faire naître des vocations à l'apostolat. Le double but que vous visiez sera donc, en le fait, atteint.

Encore une fois, mon Révérend Père, je vous félicite de vos si nobles et si heureux efforts, et je souhaite à vos "Propos" la diffusion rapide qu'obtiennent présentement parmi nous les "Débats" de votre frère, le Père Bonaventure.

Votre tout dévoué en Notre-Seigneur.

Mon journal

La lecture d'un journal est devenue un besoin; elle a pris dans nos habitudes et il nous est aussi difficile de nous en priver, qu'il nous est de sacrifier à un autre plaisir. Si Monsieur n'a pas son journal, il s'impatiente et fait de la bicyclette; et Madame est en train de lire, son écho mondain ou la chronique des décès.

A force de lire tous les jours son journal, l'abbé s'en approprie les idées, les préjugés, les passions. Sa tête se moule sur le quotidien qui lui fournit des jugements; il les accepte sans broncher, s'en fait l'écho ou le phonographe plus ou moins conscient.

Quand le journal a des idées, de saines idées, et qu'il est libre, les inconvenients sont légers, d'autant plus que c'est l'unique moyen pour beaucoup de gens de se faire des opinions. Mais si le journal est protestant, quelles idées émettra-t-il? "Il me tient mieux au courant des affaires", dit celui-ci. "Il me familiarise avec les expressions anglaises", ajoute celui-là. — Soit.

Mais il vous familiarise aussi avec des idées qui ne sont pas les vôtres, idées sédentaires parce qu'elles sont larges; si larges en effet qu'elles sont fautes et vous faonnent à petits coups un cerveau protestant.

Si votre journal, français de nom, est avant tout une entreprise commerciale, s'il doit atténuer la vérité et subir des influences; si pour étendre sa clientèle et la retenir il n'est ni chair ni poisson; s'il bat dans la caisse autour des scandales qui amoncellent la curiosité morbide, s'il dose ses jugements au caprice ou selon l'intérêt, non du pays ou de la religion, mais des bailleurs de fonds ou des partis qui l'exploitent dites-moi quelle mentalité peut-il créer? N'y a-t-il pas là pour le journal une situation fâcheuse et pour ses lecteurs un grand danger?

Au lecteur de se tenir en garde et d'apprendre à réserver son jugement. Le nombre des naïfs qui croient parce que c'est imprimé et que leur journal l'a dit, tend à décroître. Des mots, Puisse-t-il baisser, baisser encore?

Cher ami, votre journal vous sert-il à pleine colonne des câncans et des ragots, vous nourrit-il de reportages et de scandales, défiez-vous! Le bas de la caisse et cherche des sous-sous. Prenez garde! trop souvent dans le privé, pendant que nos quotidiens amusent le peuple devant les prouesses de quelque titre ou par les histoires abracadabrantes de quelques détraqués, les tireurs de ficelles opèrent en arrière; le peuple n'avait rien vu, le coup était fait, il était trop tard! Ouvrons les yeux!

Petit conte à méditer
Il y avait un fermier à Edmundston, Québec qui se servait, pour labourer, d'un bœuf et d'un cheval.

Un soir, après une longue et pénible journée, le bœuf dit au cheval: "Je trouve que nous avons assez travaillé, depuis quelque temps, et j'en ai assez. Simulons la maladie demain, et nous passerons toute une longue et agréable journée dans l'étable bien fraîche, à dormir et nous reposer."

"Fais ce qu'il te plaira", répondit le cheval, "quant à moi, j'ai un devoir de travailler, et je travaillerai." Le lendemain matin, le bœuf donna tous les signes de maladie et de faiblesse qu'un bœuf peut donner et le fermier lui fit une bonne litière de paille fraîche, lui laissa une nourriture soignée et s'en fut labourer avec le cheval.

"Vint le soir, et des qu'ils furent seuls, le bœuf demanda au cheval comment ça s'était passé. "Il faisait chaud", dit le cheval, "et moi s'avez-vous fait qu'un coin du champ, mais..."

"Et ça, ça", répondit le bœuf, "je vais continuer mon petit jeu encore quelques jours". Il tint parole, et le soir du quatrième jour, il s'enquit de nouveau auprès du cheval de ce que le maître avait dit de lui. Et le cheval lui dit, non sans rougir: "Il n'en a pas parlé de toi, mais en revenant par le village il est entré chez le boucher et l'a invité à venir te voir."
