Sackville, Aug. 27.--A former Sackville resident, Mrs. Thomas Egan, passed away at Vancouver, B. C., on Thursday. Her husband, Captain Egan, died here seven years ago after which she returned to Vancouver. Deceased was 80 years of age and leaves to mourn two daughters, Mrs. John A. Bowser and Mrs. Fred Copp, and three sons, John, Isaac and Fred, all of whom reside in Vancouver, with three sons, William, Harvey and Barlow, who live in the United States. Mrs. Egan was a daughter of the late Isaac Crocker of Wood Point, and two brothers, John and Jacob reside there. The remains will arrive here on Wednesday accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Egan and the funeral held from Main street Baptist church on Thursday.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. William Hicks who removed from here to Amherst, in the fatal accident which befell their two year old son Basil, on Saturday morning. While driving on the back of a wagon on the Amherst streets he jumped off in front of an automobile one of the wheels passing over his head. He was taken at once to the office of Dr. Avard and expired almost immediately. Several other children are left the bereaved parents.

Myrtle Lodge, I.O.F., installed officers recently. District Deputy Grand Master Dr. Burrill of Amherst being present. N.G., A. M. Avard; V.G., M. Wry; Rec. Sec., W. A. Gass; Fin. Sec., A. A. Steeves; Con. W. S. Teed; Guard, G. W. Cole; O.G., Rev. J. S. McFadden; R.S.N.G., J. W. Wheeler; L.S.N.G., H. S. Richardson; R.S.Y., A. H. Wry; L.S.Y.G., F. L. Estabrooks; R.S.S., J. Harper; L.S.S., A. T. Abbott; J.P.G., J. A. Gowan; Chap. E. R. Bignall.

Herman S. Murray of Murray Corner left on Saturday for Chatham to take the position of instructor of manual training in the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Heckbert and daughter, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Waters, made a motor trip to Sackville and Amherst last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Seaman of Moncton are spending some time in this vicinity.

Mrs. F. T. Tingley left on Friday to spend a few weeks in Montreal and Toronto.

Mrs. Walter Sears who has spent some time in the St. John Hospital has returned home improved in health.

W. A. Nelson of St. John made a business trip here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Vard and C. A. Fawcett represented the Sackville board of trade at the meeting of the Maritime board last week at Truro, N. S.

Miss Jennie King has accepted a position on the Woodstock school staff.

Rev. C. F. Wiggins and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Allison are spending a short time in Fredericton and attended the services in connection with the opening of the new cathedral last week.

Among those from here attending the Toronto exhibition are Mrs. Amasa Dixon, Miss Annie Ford and Miss Nellie Turner.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Stewart Campbell was gladdened on Monday by the arrival of a daughter.

P. G. Mahoney, M.P., who is visiting his son's mill at Calhoun's near Dorchester last week, was struck on the shoulder by a deal and knocked senseless by the force of the blow. His injuries although painful are not of a serious character, which was considered, miraculously under the circumstances.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sherborne, who have been the guests of Mrs. Frank Harris, left for home in Milford, Mass., last week.

The Misses Gross, of Moncton, are guests of their aunt, Mrs. H. W. Teed, Dorchester, on Monday evening, given by the Dorchester Summer Club. They report an unusually pleasant time.

Principal J. M. Palmer, Mrs. Palmer and son have returned from an extended trip to Nova Scotia towns.

Rev. Thomas Marshall and family leave Wednesday for Charlottetown. Mr. Marshall has received an appointment as pastor of Grace Methodist church, in that city.

The public schools opened here to-day with the following staff of teachers: High School--Principal, A. D. Jones, grades 4 and 5, Miss May Carter, Point de Bute; grades 5 and 6, Miss Laura Carter, Point de Bute; grades 7 and 8, Miss McKnight, Apohaqui; and Miss Mary Newcombe, Hopewell Cape; grades 1 and 2, Miss Rita Iach, Hampstead. In the Salem school Misses Thompson, of Sackville, and Wright of Rexton, are again in charge and in the upper school Miss Read and Miss Wright, of last year's staff remain. Miss Edna James is teacher of the York street school and Miss Clara Kimball, of Oromocto, of
