POLICE BOYCOTT IN IRELAND

Amazing Sinn Fein Document Taken from One of which a very list was decreed that the police forces maintained by the English Forces in Ireland be ostracized socially by the people of Ireland, you are requested to bring the following to the nctice of all the members of your cumainn:

1. Avoid all intercourse with such persons, unless purely business matters made it absolutely necessary.

2. Do not salute them or reply to their salutations.

3. Do not take part in any social entertainment where they are expected to be present as guests.

4. Should they be allowed to attend any social entertainments, such as dances, etc., our members are advised to leave immediately.

Carefully avoid places they are known to visit, and more particularly public-houses which they frequent.

In the term police forces we include all members of the organization known as the D. I. C. and D. M. P. Both officers and men ("peepers") detectives and spies, whether they devote their whole time to detective and spying, or disguise themselves by engaging in some ordinary civil occupation. Members are requested to report to their shall all the symptoms incidents that change and had all the symptoms incidents that all the symptoms incidents that the symptoms incidents that al
