Commons Votes The Customs $6,782,195

Lively Clash Between D. D. McKenzie and the Hon. R. W. Wigmore.

Ottawa, Ont., May 20.—The House today voted remaining supply for the department of customs and inland revenue, D. D. McKenzie of Cape Breton north, objected to a provision in a five million vote for salaries which permits payment of overtime to customs and inland revenue officers, notwithstanding the Civil Service Act.

How R. W. Wigmore replied that the particular provision was introduced under the Laurier regime. That, retorted Mr. McKenzie, did not give the present government the right to proceed in the same way. If the Civil Service Act did not provide for payment of overtime, it should be changed.

Vote is Higher. The total vote was one of $6,782,195, covering salaries, contingencies, stationery, revenue cruisers and miscellaneous, an increase of $129,900 over last year.

The other items carried without discussion included $671,380 for salaries and travelling expenses of port officers and other officers of the preventive service; $423,000 for miscellaneous purposes; $283,000 for the maintenance of revenue cruisers, and $10,000 for the secret preventive service. Minor amounts in the 1930-31 supplementary estimates carried without discussion.

SEVEN CITIES HAVE STOOD ON SITE OF TOWN OF BETH-SHAN

IS KNOWN TODAY BY NAME OF BEISAN

Philadelphia, May 20.—Beliefs of an or more cities which successively stood on the same site and of nine different civilizations are expected to be revealed by the excavation of the biblical city of Beth-shan, in Palestine which is to be undertaken in June. The work will be done under the auspices of the American School of Oriental Research, Inc., and the Curator of the Egyptian section of the Museum of the University of Pennsylvania. Official permission to undertake this work has been received from the government of Palestine.

Beth-shan is now known as Beisan. It is situated in the valley of Jezreel, just west of the Jordan and not far south of the Sea of Galilee. More great battles are believed to have taken place within sight of this city than perhaps on any other spot known to history. The investigators hope to find there the keys to the whole history of that section of the world written either on marble slabs containing the laws, decrees, treaties and other information or on bronze tablets or written in clay, with cuneiform characters.

Was Strategic Point. Beth-shan was a strategic point of value to any of the great military leaders of ancient times who aspired to try his hand at successful conquest. It was on the route of all the builders of ancient empires.

Beginning 5,000 years ago it suffered the blows of the armies of Sargon, Abraham, Hammurabi, Sennacherib, Nebuchadnezzar, Thothmes, Saut, David, Alexander, Pompey and Napoleon. Joshua and his troops against Beth-shan but could not take it because its defenders used iron chariots—precursors of the tanks of the world.

The Crusaders made Beth-shan a point of attack in their vain efforts to conquer Damascus. When the Assyrians came to the city, it was destroyed. It was on the route of all the builders of ancient empires.

Why Grandpa is So Popular

GOOD health and good humor usually go hand-in-hand. The sufferer from torpid liver, indigestion or irritated nerves cannot easily maintain a happy countenance and a cheerful disposition, whether young or old.

Mr. D. F. Armstrong, R.R. No. 2, Mallorytown, Ont., writes: "Through overwork and an extra amount of mental strain, I became very nervous and run-down. I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and they certainly seemed to touch the right spot. It almost seemed for a time as though I fairly lived on them, and I can recommend this treatment to anyone requiring a medicine of this kind. I am now over 61 years old."

Charlotte Town loses Leading Clergyman. The many admiring friends in this city of the late Rev. Thomas P. Fullerton, D.D., who was for twenty years pastor of St. James Presbyterian church at Charlottetown, were saddened to learn of his death which occurred at his home in Charlottetown last week after a long illness with cancer of the throat.

Dr. Fullerton was a man of outstanding prominence in affairs of the Maritime Synod of the Presbyterian church, and by his death the church has lost a wise counsellor and a safe guide.

Formerly Located Here. Previous to going to Charlottetown he was pastor of the Calvin church in this city. In 1899 he went as Presbyterial chaplain to the South African war, going as a member of the 1st Canadian contingent, attached to Company G. He served with credit and distinction, going through the whole campaign.

Dr. Fullerton always took a live interest in public affairs, and always he rallied upon to take a leading part in anything that meant for the uplift and betterment of the community in which he lived.

TORPID LIVER FOR OVER 4 MONTHS. The duty of the liver is to prepare and secrete bile and serve as a filter to the blood, cleansing it of all impurities and poisons.

When the liver becomes lazy, slow or torpid it is not working properly, and does not supply sufficient bile to thoroughly act on the bowels and carry off the waste products of the system, hence the bowels become clogged up, the bile gets into the blood, cleanses it and liver troubles follow.

Milburn's Laxative Pills quickly remove the congestion, clear away the waste and settle matter by acting directly on the liver and making the bile pass through the bowels instead of allowing it to get into the blood, and cause so many troubles.

Mrs. Little, Mobil, New Brunswick, writes: "I was so badly run down and had a torpid liver for four months I tried several remedies, but got no relief. One day my husband brought home a box of Milburn's Laxative Pills, and before I had used half of it I was much better. I only used two pills, and I am a different person today. I can now recommend Milburn's Laxative Pills to any one troubled with liver trouble."

Milburn's Laxative Pills are 25c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WANT TO GET BACK ANCIENT FAMILY HOME

Bourbons After Chateau de Chambord Taken by French During War.

OWNER WAS SERVING WITH THE AUSTRAINS His Brother, Who Served With Belgians, Now Puts in His Claim for It.

Paris, May 20.—Efforts by two princes of the House of Bourbon-Parma to recover possession of the celebrated Chateau de Chambord which was captured by the French government during the war, is one of the most interesting aftermaths of the great conflict.

The Chateau is more than 400 years old and is one of the most striking and interesting of the famous feudal establishments of ancient France. It was once one of the most magnificent of these great estates, and lies in the valley of the Loire close to the town of Blois and has about 16,000 acres of land which is enclosed by a wall.

The chateau is a masterpiece of architecture, with its towers and its double spiral staircase leading to the double lantern which dominates the centre of the tower.

It was built in 1536 and for two centuries was a royal residence. Louis XV. gave it to Marshal de Saxe and the latter presented it to Marshal Berthier. Eventually it fell into the possession of the Duke of Parma.

Confiscated During War. At the beginning of the war it was owned by Prince Elias, of Bourbon-Parma, and was sequestered because he was serving in the Austrian army as an attaché of the Austrian general staff. Prince Elias is a brother of Charles of Austria-Hungary, the emperor's son-in-law.

After the war Prince Elias attempted to recover possession of the estate, but the French courts have just allowed his claim. This, however, does not settle the question of its ownership, for Prince Sixtus, also of Bourbon-Parma, brother of Prince Elias, has put in a claim to the ownership of the Chateau. Prince Sixtus does not suffer the disability of Prince Elias as Sixtus and his brother Xavier both offered their services to the French government in the war and being refused on the ground that descendants of the old royal houses could not be permitted to fight for France, they both enlisted in the Belgian army where they served as stretcher-bearers under fire. Their bravery in this service was afterwards recognized in a French citation.

Americans will identify Prince Sixtus as the man who received, while the war was still in progress, the famous letter from Emperor Charles of Austria in which he stated that he sympathized with France's aspirations for the restoration of the empire. In his opinion Belgium should be restored by Germany. Prince Sixtus turned the letter over to President Poincaré and its publication by Premier Clemenceau created consternation in Germany. The Emperor Charles denied its authenticity.
