I have to remark that the heavenly Shepherd will find many sheep amid the nonchurchgoers. They are congregations where they are all Christians, and they seem to be completely finished, and they remit done of the skeleton leaves which by the skeleton leaves which leaves which leaves the skeleton leaves which leaves the skelet fife, gathering recruits for the Lord of Hosts and saying to every applicant: "Do you want to be on God's side, the safe side and the happy breastplate for your heart. Here is a sword for your right arm, and yonder is the battlefield. Quit yourselves like men. There may be some here who say, "I stopped going to church 10 or 20 years ago." Is it not strange that you are among the first that I address to-day? I know all your case. You have not been accustomed to going into the house of God, but I have a surprising announcement to-make to you. You are going to be-come one of the Lord's sheep. "Oh," you say, "it is impossible. You do not know how far I am from any-thing of the kind." I know all about it. I have wandered up and down the world, and I understand of the mightiest advocates of the gospel were once skeptics. Thomas Chalmers once a skeptic. Robert Hall a skeptic. Christmas Evans a skep-Charles G. Finney a skeptic. Paul, the apostle, once a skeptic. But when once with strong hand they laid hold of the gospel chariot they rolled it on with what momentum! I do not know how you came to reject Christianity. It may have been through the infi-del talk of some young man in the store or shop or factory. It may have been through the trickery of some professed Christian man who disgusted you with religion. Or you may have become skeptical from the fact that you grew up in a home surfeited with prayer meetings. You were stuffed and choked with catechisms. You were often told that you were the worst boy your parents ever knew because you liked to ride down hill better than to read Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress." Whenever your father and mother talked religion they drew down the corners of their mouths and roll-ed up their eyes. If any one thing will send a boy to ruin sooner than another, that is it.

But I do not stop now to know how you came into rejection of knees. O God, now that the parox-Christianity. You frankly tell me ysm of thirst is come again on that that you do reject it. You do not believe that Christ is a divine being, although you admit that he was a very good man. You do not believe that the Bible was inspired of God, although you think there are some very fine things in it. You bescattered all over the earth. Other some very line things in it. Now, you have found that this world is insufficient and you are sick of sin. I come to you with a gospel medicine. It has cured hundreds and medicine. It has cured hundreds and thousands and millions. Will you take it? "No," you say, "I have no confidence in it." Take it, then, to oblige me. I tell you of a Physician who has cured more blind eyes, and bound up more broken hearts, and healed more ghastly wounds than all the doctors since the time of Aesculapius. Be obliging and just make the experiment. If you are not acquainted with the ordinary modes of prayer, say in substance: "O Lord one acre and has raised splendid Jesus, this is a strange thing for me to do. I know nothing about the formulas of religion. Christian people have been talking so long about what thou canst do for there were left 10,000 wounded and I ready to

The minister of Christ has nothing to do with such Christians but to come once a week and with ostrich feather dust off the accumulation of the last six days, leawing them bright and crystalline as before. But the other kind of church is an armory, with perpetual sound of drum and fife, gathering recruits for the Lord of Hosts and saying to every appliwere a chain of 40 or 50 links and that when they had run out there was nothing left to touch a bad case side? Here is a helmet for your brow. Here is a large for the lost game than they would look for that lost soul. look for that lost soul.

People tell us that if a man has de lirium tremens twice he cannot be re-claimed, that if a woman has sacrifi-ced her integrity she cannot be re-stored. The Bible has distinctly intimated that the Lord Almighty is ready to pardon four hundred and ninety times. Why do I say four hundred and ninety times? Because the Bible says "seventy times seven." Now figure that out. You do not think a man can fall four times. not think a man can fall four times eight times, ten times, twenty times, one hundred times, four hundred times and yet be saved. Four hundred and ninety times! There are men before the throne of God who have wallowed in every kind of sin, but saved by the grace of Christ and washed in his blood they stand there chief of sinners.

I want to tell you that God loves to take hold of a very bad case. When the church casts you off, and and when society casts you off, and when business associates cast off, and when father casts you off, and when mother casts you off, and everybody casts you off, your first cry for help, will bend the eternal God clear down into the ditch of your suffering and shame. The Good Templars cannot save you, although they are a grand institution. The Sons of Temperance cannot save you, although they are mighty for good. Signing the temperance pledge cannot save you, although I believe in it. Nothing but the grace of the eternal God can save you and that will if where religion was overdone. Sunday was the most awful day in the week'. You had religion driven into you with a trip hammer. You were surfeited with prayer meetings. You were stuffed and choked with cates. ecaries can mix. Put your trust only in the eternal God. With some of these men it is a periodic tempta-tion that comes every six weeks or every three months, when it seems as if the powers of darkness kindle around about your tongue the fires of the pit. It is well at such a time, as some of you do, to call on medi-cal counsel, but your first and most importunate cry must be to God. If the fiends will drag you to the slaughter, may they do so on your knees. O God, now that the parox-

You feel the Holy Ghost this moment in your heart. You do not weep, but the tear is not far off. You sigh, and you have noticed that there is always a sigh in the wind before the rain falls. There are those here who would give any thing if they could find relief in tears They say: "Oh, my wasted life! Oh, the bitter past! Oh, the graves over which I have stumbled! Whith er shall I fly? Alas, for the future! Everything is so dark! God help me! God pity me!" Thank the Lord for the last utterance. You have begun to pray, and when a man begins to petition, God steps in and beats back the hounds of temptation to their kennel and round about the poor wounded soul puts the covert of his pardoning mercy. Hark! I hear something fall. What was that? It is the bars of the fence around the sheepfold. The Shepherd lets down the bars, and the hunted sheep of the mountain bound in, some of them of them their feet lamed with dogs, but bounding in. Thank God! HAD NO RELIGION.

A Senor Wanted a Clause Invoking the Creator Struck Out of the Constitution.

Havana, Jan. 24-The Cuban constitutional convention today began the discussion of the draft constitution recently submitted by the Central committee. It was decided to accept the draft as a whole and then to discuss it article by article. Senor Cisneros moved to strike out a clause invoking the favor of God. He said that he liad no religion himself and that the constitution recognized no religion and that, in his opinion, there rengion and that, in his opinion, there was no reason for invoking the Deity. The convention rejected the proposal,
