five thalers. Raltimore Wednesday to try the case of the Rev. H. E. C. Baskerville of Laurel, charged with whipping his wife. The specification is that one Sunday a short time since the reverend gentleman, who is the provider for his household, having failed to procure anything for breakfast except bread and butter, was surprised to find some eggs on the table, and being informed by his wife, in response to an inquiry, that she had borrowed them from a neighbor, told her he would "teach her how to break the Sabbath," and did so by slapping her jaws—one of and did so by slapping her jaws—one of the slaps striking her on the eye and "blacking" that orb into which he had so often fondly gazed.
