Recruits Wanted.

The little paragraph in last week's HERALD anent recruiting in Carleton Place caused some stir amongst the powers that be, and the result was a visit to town on Friday last from Sergt.
Edwards of the 42nd. He is arranging with the authorities to hold a meeting in Carleton Place shortly in the interests of the cause, when all who wish will be given an opportunity to join the colors.
We understand some of those who were looking for an enlistment officer took the advice tendered and went down to Smiths Falls. If there are any others

Married at Winnipeg.

From the Winnipeg Free Press of August 11, we obtain the following item:—"At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Capt. R. B. McTavish, of the 78th battalion, and Miss Anna MacDougall, formerly of Carleton Place, Ont., were united in marriage at the home of the groom's mother, 258 Langside street.
The bride, who was unattended, was becomingly attired in white silk crepe de chene. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Capt. W. B. Heeney, chaplain of the battalion. After a dainty wedding luncheon the bride and groom left for a short stay at Kenora. Only the immediate relatives were present.
Miss MacDougall's father, of Carleton Place, and Miss Laura Hawkins, of Regina, were out-of-town guests." The same paper also says:—"Miss Laura Hawkins, of Regina, who was in the city to attend the wedding of Capt. R.
B. McTavish, of the 78th battalion, and Miss Anna MacDougall, will spend a few weeks with the Misses MacDougall at their cottage, 141 Parkview street."

Death of Huntley Pioneer.

Martin Ryan, one of fine old men of Huntley township, passed away last week at the patriarchal age of 98 years.
He was a native of Ireland and came out to Huntley when a boy; sixty-five years ago he and Miss Elizabeth Herrick were married and their home was ever a meat of happiness and frugality. Mrs.
Ryan survives, as does one son, James, on the homestead and five daughters, all married. The funeral took place on Monday morning to St. Michael's at Corkery and was very largely attended; Rev. Thos. O'Neill celebrated Requiem Mass, assisted by Rev. Austin Stanton; interment was made in Huntley cemetery.

A BRITISH SHIP SUNK

THE ROYAL EDWARD GOES DOWN WITH 900 LIVES.

Just as THE HERALD goes to press a message has reached us that a British troopship, The Royal Edward, has been sunk, with 1,500 on board. 600 are said to have been rescued, the others have met a watery grave. This is the first British transport to have met with disaster.

Death of James H. Russell.

After an illness of many months Mr.
James H. Russell, machinist, of the C.P.R. Shops, sank quietly to rest on Friday evening last. The deceased was born in Bathurst township, in March, 1850, and so was in his 66th year. He spent his boyhood in his native township and at 18 years of age went to Montreal, where he learned his trade.
In 1877 he moved to Brockville, and later to Alexandria Bay, where for many years he was manager of the 1000 Islands machine shops. In 1901 he came to Carleton Place, entering the C.P.R. shops and continued in this position until April last, when his health obliged him to give up. Whilst residing in Montreal in 1875 he married, and is survived by his wife and two daughters—Mrs. White and Mrs. Wilson of Ottawa. Two brothers also survive, John in Bathurst and Thomas in Drummond Centre, and four sisters—Mrs. Clarence Smith and Mrs. Michael Ally, of Brockville, Mrs. Daniel Gill, Oswego, N.Y., and Mrs. Ed. Davis, Sault Ste. Marie. Mr. Russell was of a quiet disposition, fond of his home, a lover of nature, and took a great delight in his garden. He was a great reader and very well informed. The funeral took place yesterday morning to St.
Mary's church, and thence to the C.P.R. station for Brockville, where interment was made. The pallbearers were Messrs.
J. S. Galvin, W. J. Welsh, John Clark, Thos. McCaw, Wm. Machin and H.
Montgomery. Many floral tributes adorned the casket, amongst them a wreath from the Machinists Union and another from the C.P.R. Shopmates.

Pretty Wedding at Lake Park.

Last Wednesday afternoon Juanita Lodge, Lake Park, the summer home of Mrs. George Keyes, was the scene of a pretty outdoor wedding, when her only daughter Miss Edna Arvilla, was united in the holy bonds with Mr. Calvin Wellington Moore, of Smiths Falls, son of Mr. G. A. Moore of Brockville. The ceremony took place at 4 o'clock, under a bower of evergreens, appropriately decorated with wild fern, cattails and water lilies, Rev. W. G. Henderson, of the Methodist church, officiating. As the bride left the cottage leaning on the arm of her mother, Mr. L. Roy Moffatt, of Ottawa, played Lohengrin's wedding march. The bride was attended by Mrs. L. R. Moffatt, as matron of honor, and Mr. D. M. Halpenny, of Smiths Falls, supported the groom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of duchess satin, velled in dewdrop net with square court train, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of lily-of-the-valley. The matron of honor was also attired in ivory satin, with black velvet hat and pink mount and osprey, and a corsage bouquet of American beauty roses. The bride's mother wore a black satin gown, with black velvet hat, and corsage bouquet of mauve sweet peas.
The ceremony was witnessed by a large party of the immediate friends and the neighbors on the Park. After the usual congratulations a dainty luncheon was served in the dining-room, the waiters being four of the bride's girl friends, all gowned in white. The table decorations were sweet peas and asters. The bride was the recipient of a large number of handsome gifts, among them a case of pearl handle knives and forks from the Epworth League and Sunday School of the Methodist church, where the bride was remembered by his fellow employees in the A. B. Scott Co. store, with a handsome easy chair. The young couple motored to town and took the 8 p.m. train for a short trip, the bride travelling in a navy blue gaberdine suit, with black velvet hat and white mount and osprey, amidst showers of confetti and good wishes. They will return and spend a few days at the Park before leaving for their home in Smiths Falls, where the groom holds a position on the staff of the A. B. Scott Co. Among the out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Edmunds and Percy and Mrs. J. Phillips, Smiths Falls; Mrs. Fenwarden and Mr. and Mrs. L.
Roy Moffatt, Ottawa, and Miss Vesta Cross of Jasper.
