THE BEST AND CHEAPEST FAMILY SEWING MACHINE

IN THE WORLD! THE $25 NOVELTY SEWING MACHINE.

It makes the famous elastic lock stitch that will not rip or ravel, and will not break in washing, ironing or wearing. It is adapted to all kinds of family sewing, and to the use of seamstresses, dressmakers, and indeed for all purposes where sewing is required. It uses the straight needle, which is not so liable to break as the curved. It does not soil the dress of the operator, and does not require to be taken apart to be oiled. It is not injured by being turned backward, and is therefore not liable to be put out of order by children or inexperienced persons. It is made in the most thorough manner of the best material.

For beauty and excellence of stitch, for strength, firmness and durability of seam, for economy of thread, for simplicity and the roughness, and for cheapness, this machine is WITHOUT A RIVAL.

At the Massachusetts State Fair of 1867 the Novelty Sewing Machine took the Premium over Willcox & Gibbs, and was awarded a Bronze Medal therefor.

Every machine is sold with a table and complete outfit, and is warranted for one year.

THE BRITISH CHURCHMAN'S MAGAZINE,

FOR Residents in the Colonies, India, and on the Continent of Europe.

PROSPECTUS.

"Another new Magazine!" the readers of this circular will at once exclaim; but the projectors of the "British Churchman's Magazine" feel there is yet a void left for them to fill, fully acknowledging the truth of the inspired Word, which says, "Of making many books there is no end."

As this is a preliminary circular only, a very brief statement of the plan and scope of the Magazine will be given. This first circular is issued to ask from members of the Church of England in the colonies and at home a promise to become subscribers for the Magazine for twelve months. It is impossible to issue the first number until a promised circulation of 5,000 monthly copies has been obtained. Already, while the project is yet in the bud, 1,000 copies a month have been promised. The Editor and Publishers issue this circular with a confident hope that the circulation required will be at once obtained, as they feel certain the want of such a Magazine as the one they propose to issue is largely felt.

OBJECT. To give residents in the vast colonial empire of Great Britain, and residents in India, a religious Magazine of their own, published in connexion with the Church of England; to afford settlers who are without the ministrations of a regular pastor short services from our own Liturgy, short sermons, daily prayers, to be used by all needing such a help; and instructive papers on various subjects.

PLAN. No efforts will be spared to secure the services of the BEST WRITERS OF THE DAY as contributors to the Magazine. To be issued monthly, at the cost of sixpence (about the size of "Good Words"). Arrangements will be made with the Colonial Bishops and Clergy who wish to purchase the Magazine in sheets, for diocesan and parochial circulation, printing their own covers, with local information upon them.

CONTENTS. A Serial Tale. Good Illustrations—a series of the English Cathedrals. Short Plain Sermons. Short Services from the Book of Common Prayer. Liturgical Family Prayers. Hymns and Poetry. Papers for the Young. Notes on Foreign Churches. Ditto, the Colonial Church. Home Church Work. Correspondence. Notes on Books for Colonial Libraries.

All communications to be addressed to the Editor, care of Messrs. Sampson Low and Marston, publishers, Crown Buildings, 128 Fleet Street, London, England.
