

of Canada to commemorate the Battle of Stoney Creek,
fought June the sixth, eighteen
hundred and thirteen.

In nineteen hundred and nine the Countess Grey turned the first sod, and a year later Lt.-
Gen. Sir John
A. B. French laid
the corner stone.