

Terrebonne, P.Q.; St. James's Club, Montreal.

"A gracious and cultured gentleman."

"Faith Fenton."

"A consistent Con. throughout, and has preserved through all an irreproachable reputation for righteousness and honesty."
—Witness.

MASTEN, George Lyman, educationist, is the s. of the late Cornelius Masten, Lacolle, P.Q., and was b. there, 1836. Ed. at Clarenceville Acad., at Fort Edward Inst., N.Y., and at Victoria Coll., Cobourg; he was apptd., 1858, to the charge of Lacolle Acad. In 1867 he became Principal of St. John's High Sch., whence he proceeded, 1870, again, to Lacolle. Since 1876 he has been Principal of the Coaticook Acad. His professional attainments have received recognition, by his appt. (1884) to the Provl. Council of Public Instruction, and by his election (1894) to the Presidency of the Provl. Teachers' Assn. He is also a gov. of the Wesl. Theol. Coll., Montreal. A mem. of the Meth. Ch., he m. 1862, Mary J., dau. of the late Traver Vanvliet, Lacolle.—Coaticook, P.Q.

MATHER, Miss Margaret, actress, is the dau. of John Finlayson. B. at Tilbury, Ont., Oct. 21, 1860, she was ed. for her profession in N. Y., and made her debut, 1881. After further study, she opened her career with Mr. Hill, at McVicar's Theatre, Chicago, Aug., 1882, as "Juliet." Her success was instantaneous. She then played in the principal cities, and, in 1885, appeared in the Union Square Theatre, N. Y. Her season of 17 weeks was played to crowded houses. Her repertoire includes "Rosalind," "Imogen," "Lady Macbeth," "Leah," "Julia," "Lady Gay Spanker," "Peg Woffington," "Mary Stuart," "Pauline," "Juliana," "Joan of Arc," "Nance Oldfield," "Constance" and "Medea." She is constantly adding new attractions to her list, and her artistic growth is said to be substantial. In 1897 she eclipsed all her previous efforts in the production of "Cymbeline," at a cost of $40,000. She

m. 1st, Alfred Haberkarn (divorced, 1890); and 2ndly, Gustave F. Pabst, Milwaukee, Wis. (divorced, 1897). —New York.

MATHESON, Alexander Ross, M.D., is the s. of Malcolm Matheson, late of the island of Lewis, Scot., by his wife, Anne Ross. B. in Esquesing, Halton, Ont., June 8, 1844, he was ed. at the private sch. of the Rev. Chas. Dade, M.A., Georgetown, and at Albion Coll., Mich. Thereafter, he was in the Federal army during the Am. civil war, seeing much severe service. He served also in the Can. volunteer force, and was present at Ridgeway, 1866. He graduated M.D. at Mich. Univ., 1870, and after pursuing a post-graduate course in N. Y., entered on the practice of his profession in Brooklyn, where he has attained an eminent position. Elected a permanent mem. of the Med. Soc. of the State of N. Y., Dr. M. has at various times held the following offices and positions, viz.: Consult. Surg. Actors' Fund of Am.; Consult. Surg. St. Joseph's Asylum, Attend. Phys. Meth. Ep. Hospital, Presdt. of the Bd. of Mangrs. Dispensary (do.), Presdt. King's Co. Med. Soc., Presdt. Brooklyn Gynaecol. Soc., and Surg. Genl. on the staff of the Grand Army of the Republic. While not a prolific contributor to the med. press, he has notwithstanding written several papers of more than ordinary interest. His wife d. 1896, — 57 7th Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

MATHESON, Lt.-Col. Arthur James, barrister and legislator, is the 5th s. of the late Col. the Hon. Roderick Matheson, Senator, formerly lieutenant and paymaster Glengarry Light Infy. during the war of 1812, by his 2nd wife, Anna, dau. of Rev. Jas. Russell, min., of Gairloch, Scot. B. at Perth, Ont., 1842, he was ed. at U. C. Coll. and at Trin. Univ., Toronto (B.A., 1865), was called to the bar, 1870, and has practised throughout in his native town. After having sat as a mem. of the town council, he was elected Mayor