

X.

That any Pleading, Notice, Summons, Rule, Order, Judgment, or other matter or proceeding, of which service is or shall be required upon any party in any suit depending in this Court, which shall be served upon any grown person at the Office of the Attorney who shall have appeared for such party; and in default of such appearance by Attorney, upon any grown person, at the elected domicile of such party, if such party shall have appeared personally, shall be held and taken to be well and sufficiently served; those instances excepted in which personal service upon such party is, by Law, by any Rule or Order of Practice, or by some Special Rule or Order made in such suit, required or directed.

XI.

That proof of service of Pleadings, and of Notices, by the affidavit of one disinterested witness, duly sworn before one of the Justices of this Court, or before a Commissioner duly authorised to take and receive affidavits to be read and used in this Court, or by the Certificate of any Bailiff of this Court, shall be deemed and taken to be good and sufficient, and that proof of the service of any Summons, issued by one or more of the Justices of this Court, of any Writ of Subpœna, or of any Rule, Order or Judgment of this Court, by like Certificate, shall be deemed and taken to be good and sufficient.

XII.

That every affidavit or Bailiff's Certificate of the service of any Pleading, Notice, Rule, Order, Interlocutory Judgment, Subpœna, or other matter, shall particularly describe the manner, place, and hour of such service, and shall not otherwise be received or filed; and if from such affidavit, or certificate, it shall appear that such service was made upon a Sunday or holiday, or upon any other day before the hour of six in the morning, or after the hour of eight in the evening, such service shall be held and taken to be wholly ineffectual and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.
