

GRUNTS FROM GRANVILLE

By-the-way—Who said baseball ?

“Yes sir, I’ll send one of my men.” Steady boy, steady.

Was the lady typist very pleased to hear that a certain Lance-Corporal had a good conduct stripe ?

Why did the Lift go out of commission so suddenly when the Theatrical Party arrived the other day ?

We are asked to inquire when the orderlies on the ground floor intend to produce their new revue, “Fetch a Screen.”

I gaze out of my window
On this sunny afternoon,
And I see him playing tennis ;
’Tis indeed a beautiful sight,
The free play of the shoulders,
And powerful swing of the arm—
—“Thank heaven you’re in charge
Of the Department
And not giving massage
With poor me as your patient.
It would be Morden I could stand.”

The young lady who wishes to know if Curly was married had better correspond direct—we have no information on file.

Who was the staff patient in ward 117 who asked to be transferred to the west side so he could see more of his lady friend.

Who was the Sergeant who made an appointment to meet a young lady in Broadstairs, arrived back d—— hot, two punctures and no girl ?

Is Corporal Perry taking Domestic Science ? Between the Personnel Mess and the Y.M.C.A. Canteen he should be becoming quite efficient.

The chap that “borrowed” the Stars and Stripes from the Maple Leaf Club should tell people when he “borrows” things—
“An eye witness.”
