Student opposes Cardinal

MONTREAL (CUP) — Quebec students have been out to shake up education minister Jean-Guy Cardinal ever since he refused to take any action in the CEGEP disturbances two weeks ago.

Michel Mill, a 24-year-old student at L'Université de Montreal, has found a way.

He announced plans October 30 to run against Cardinal in a by-election December 4 in the provincial riding of Bagot, formerly held by the late premier Daniel Johnson. He is the only cabinet minister who does not hold a seat in the legislature.

Mill, who will run under a socialist banner, said he did not want the minister to run without opposition: "This would be anti-democratic, especially at a time when Cardinal has been the object of student opposition because of his guilt in the post-secondary education fiasco".

Cops break up picket line

PORT ARTHUR (CUP) — Police Thursday tried to prevent students from Lakehead University from joining a picket line set up by retail clerks striking against Lakehead department stores.

The students issued a statement saying: "We believe that students should actively support groups of people in the non-university community who are consciously struggling to improve their working and/or living conditions. Alliances should be formed on the basis of mutual respect, a sharing of decision-making power, and a pooling of resources."

One Port Arthur cop told the students to "pack it in".

"Any demonstrations", he said, "and you're all arrested. Put that damn camera down and don't use it."

In Fort William, a police sergeant stormed down the picket line and broke up a television interview between students and CKPR-TV.

"If you're going to do it, keep moving, no stalling. If my picture is in there cut it out. If I see it on TV you'll hear about it," he told the cameramen.

The students were invited to join the picket lines by Mrs. Irene Hogan, chief executive officer for local 409 of the Retail Clerks Union. The Union has been on strike since October 3 — its principal demand is union security in the various shops.
