Ottawa, August 3rd, 1926

Dear Madam:

Your letter of the 16th of July arrived in Ottawa in the absence of Mr. Meighen from the city. He is at present in the midst of his election campaign and will not return to Ottawa for some three or four weeks, and rather than delay an acknowledgment until then, I am taking the liberty of sending you note in the meantime. Your letter will be placed before Mr. Meighen at the first available opportunity.

Yours faithfully,

Private Secretary.

Mrs. S. Alec Tweedie,
Devonshire House,
Mayfair, London,
England.
