Dear Dr. MacNeill:

I have your letter of 27th April which I have read with real appreciation.

The "Modern Eloquence" books I have read through and particularly noted the address to which you refer, namely that by Col. Ingersoll on "William Shakespeare". Have never seen the other book by Dr. Thomas, "Weavers of Words, The Story of the World's Great Writers", and will endeavour to get same if I can find it.

Meantime I am enclosing to you a copy of the speech to which you listened over the radio.

Yours sincerely,

Arthur Meighen.

Dr. A. L. H. MacNeill,
Milden, Sask.
