

the crop now growing on 16 acres of the land shall remain your property and be harvested and taken away by you. If John Douglas fails to pay the amount awarded, the land will be leased and the rent paid to you with interest until the claim has been fully satisfied. Failing to secure a tenant for the lot, you will have the option of paying Douglas for his improvements also with interest. The Department will see that the award is carried out.

Yours

Sir,

Your obedient servant

A. M. Douglas

Agent of the Dept. of of Indian Affairs