

II. The Warden shall have the privilege of bringing any important matter he may have in charge before the Council preferentially at any time, except when any question is actually under debate.

III. The Warden, or Chairman, shall preserve order and endeavor to conduct all business to a speedy and proper result. Nothing but the business before the Council shall be spoken of until the Chair is vacated.

IV. The Warden or Chairman shall state every subject clearly to the Council, and should no Councillor speak upon it, he shall enquire, "Is the Council prepared for the question?" He shall then put the question to vote.

V. The Warden's decision on points of order shall not be debateable, unless, entertaining doubts upon the subject, he invites discussion. He may speak to points of order in preference to other Councillors, rising from his seat for that purpose, and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Council by any two Councillors.

On such appeal no Councillor shall speak more than once.

VI. When an appeal is made from his decision, he shall put the question, "Shall the Chair be sustained?"

VII. It shall be the duty and privilege of any Councillor to call a member to order who violates any regulation or rule of order.

VIII. A motion must be seconded and afterwards repeated from the Chair or read aloud before it is debated.

IX. All resolutions shall be submitted in writing.

X. No Councillor shall speak more than twice upon any subject or question, and the originator of the motion shall have the general reply. The Council may give any member leave to speak oftener.

XI. While the Council is sitting, and any Councillor is speaking, no member shall be allowed to speak so as to interrupt him, unless it be to speak to order, or ask the Chairman for leave to explain. Leave to explain shall only permit the explanation of an actual misunderstanding of language.

XII. When any Councillor intends to speak he must rise and respectfully address the Chair, and confine himself to the question under debate. He must avoid personalities and unbecoming language, and sit down when he has finished. If more than one rises at a time, the Chairman shall determine who was up first, and the member named by him may speak.

XIII. No Councillor shall remain standing while another is speaking.

XIV. When any Councillor speaks to order the question of order must be decided before the subject under discussion is proceeded with.

XV. When any question is called for, and a division demanded, the Councillors voting in the affirmative shall rise.
