
BOOKS BY SIR GILBERT PARKER.

The Seats of the Mighty.

Being the Memoirs of Captain Robert Moray, time an Officer in the Virginia Regiment and afterwards of Amherst's Regiment. Illustrated. $1.50.

"Another historical romance of the vividness and interest 'The Seats of the Mighty' has never come from the pen of an American. From the first chapter to the last word interest in the book never wanes; one finds it difficult to interrupt the narrative with breathing space. It whirls with excitement and strategy to the end."—Chicago Record.

The Trail of the Sword. $1.25.

"Mr. Parker here adds to a reputation already wide, and demonstrates his power of pictorial portrayal and of dramatic situation and climax."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The Trespasser. $1.25.

"Interest, pith, force, and charm—Mr. Parker's new story possesses all these qualities. . . . Almost bare of syncretism, his paragraphs are stirring because they are real. At times—as we have read the great masters of romance—less so."—The Critic.

The Translation of a Savage. $1.25.

"A book which no one will be satisfied to put down until the end has been matter of certainty and assurance."—The Nation.

Mrs. Falchion. $1.25.

"A well-knit story, told in an exceedingly interesting manner, holding the reader's attention to the end."

The Pomp of the Laviettes. 16mo. Cloth.

"Its sincerity and rugged force will commend it to the reader who loves and seeks strong work in fiction."—The Critic.
