

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE DOMINION ALMANAC commanded so extensive a sale last year, and was so favorably received in all parts of the country, as to induce the publisher to issue a larger edition for 1871; the price being reduced to 10 cents per copy. This is done in order to insure for the DOMINION ALMANAC a ready sale, and render it one of the best advertising mediums in the country. As usual a large amount of interesting reading matter is contained in the Almanac, in addition to much valuable statistical information.
