MONDAY, 10 o'clock, A. M.

The Introductory Sermon was preached by the Rev. E. D. Vary, of Portland, from Amos iii: 3—"Can two walk together except they be agreed." A collection was then made for the purposes of the Convention. After prayer by the Rev. J. Francis G. Armstrong, the Convention was called to order by the President, and the Secretary of the former year, the Rev. I. E. Bill, read the rules in order for the transaction of business.

Letters from several Churches were read, and the delegates reported.

The following Brethren were invited to set in Council with the Convention.

Rev. R. Burpe and bro. J. Harris.
