PLEASE MENTION THIS PAPER

Dairy Shorthorns from the herd of A. W. Sanders, at Lutterworth, Leicestershire, last month, brought good prices at auction, thirty-four head selling for an average of $240. The five-year-old cow Nelly Lee 24th, brought $895, and another of the same family $500.

For about half a century, the Maple Hall herd of Scotch Shorthorn cattle, the property of David Birrell & Son, of Greenwood, Ont., has been in continual existence, Mr. Birrell Sr., being one of the pioneer importers of Scotch Shorthorns. Many years ago, when looking over the leading herds in Scotland, making selections for his annual importations, he paid particular attention to the various strains or tribes, making note of those tribes carrying the greatest wealth of flesh most evenly distributed. His observations showed him that the three leading tribes for early maturity, depth and evenness of flesh, perfection in type and show-ring quality, were the Cruickshank Duchess of Glosters and Butterflies and Shepherd Rosemarys. The years of Shorthorn breeding in Canada have demonstrated the correctness of his judgment. These are the three great tribes that will be sold by auction at their sale on Tuesday, June 20th, 1911, at their farm, Maple Hall, four miles south-east of Claremont Station, C. P. R., and six miles north of Pickering Station, G. T. R., at both of which stations conveyances will meet east and west bound trains on morning of sale. There will be sold, in all, 35 head, 26 females, from one year up, and 9 bulls, all of serviceable age, and the pedigrees of which there is not one Canadian nor American-bred bull, all the sires being imported, and all descended from imported females, many being daughters and granddaughters and great granddaughters of imported cows. The sires that top their pedigrees for as far back as the fifth generation of some of them are: Louis Arundel (imp.); the Village-bred bull, Premier Earl (imp.); the C. Victoria bull, Indian (chief (imp.); the Clementina bull, Clan Campbell (imp.); the Rosemary bull, Blue Ribby (imp.); the Golden Drop bull, Robjoy (imp.); the Lavender bull, Duke Prince (imp.); the Xomarsal bull, Lavender (imp.); the Maid of Providence bull, King James (imp.); the Missus bull, Scottish Hero (imp.), and the present stock bull, Imp. Spicy Count, a Maple Hall stock bull, Imp. Spicy King, dam Clara, sired by Spicy King, dam Cornetion, by Favorite, granddam Clara 3 by Hercules. There are no better 11 Shorthorn cattle on earth than will be sold at this sale, all are in prime condition, many of them are of show-ring quality, and among them are Torc winners. This is the first time that an auction sale was ever held on the farm, but the herd is too big, about 100 head, and the pick of the lot will be sold, absolutely without reserve. Anyone looking for show stuff should be on hand either in bulls or heifers. More highlanders next week. Write for a catalogue.
