THE WESTERN UNIVERSITY.

A newspaper published in London has found fault with an article of ours entitled "The Moribund Western University." We have since obtained further information and publish in another column a statement of receipts and disbursements of the Western University down to September 30, 1884, as submitted to the "senate" of the "university" a few months ago, but esrefully kept from the public. The first and most important fact to be deduced from the statement is the utter bankruptcy of the "university."

Twenty years ago the late bishop of Huron, Dr. Hellmuth, opened a private school in London, known as Hellmuth Boys' college. The present bishop of Toronto was the first headmaster of this school, and for a few years it proved a Huron, Dr. Hellmuth, opcned a private schod in London, known as Hellmuth Boys' college. The present bishop of Toronto was the first headmaster of this school, and for a few years it proved a prosperous and profitable undertaking for its promoter. But after Dr. Sweatman's departure the school rapidly went down, the buildings fell into a state of dilapidation, the Canadian pupils left, a clergyman named Darnell, who was installed as headmaster, could get together only a score or so of boys from the Southern and Western states, and things went from bad to worse until at last Darnell absconded, deeply regretted by his numerous creditors, and the school closed.

Dr. Hellmuth had his property on his hands, it was not a desirable investment, and the worthy bishop naturally wished to get it off his hands. After an unsuccesful attempt to induce the provincial government to buy the property for a normal school, Dr. Hellmuth conceived the magnicent idea of establishing a Church of England university on the ruins of the defunct boys' college. For the last twenty-five years there has been in London a Church of England divinity, school known as Huron college. The institution possesses about ten acres of ground, admirably situated, a pretty little chapel and a college building large enough to hold a local sectarian university for many a long year, and when the Western university was first spoken of people innocently supposed that the object of the scheme was to turn Huron college into a university. Not so, Bishop Hellmuth; the object of his scheme was to sell his old boys' college, and the statement we publish elsewhere shows how well he succeeded. It appears from his statement that including his own subscription of $10,000, Bishop Hellmuth collected by voluntary subscriptions the enormous sum of $102,639.82.

Now if Huron college had been taken for a university and the subscription applied to its endowment there might woluntary subscriptions the enormous sum of $102,839.82.

Now if Huron college had been taken for a university and the subscriptions applied to its endowment there might have arisen a respectable little institution as well qualified to exercise university powers as some of the other denominational colleges. But, as we said, this was not Dr. Hellmuth's object. Observe what he did with the moneys collected. We find that "collection expenses" amount to $13,425.54. These are the travelling expenses of the gentlemen who took up the subscription. The excellent bishop's own expenses for five trips to England amount to $9,956,89; he must have traveled in good style—even for a bishop. But to the "collection expenses" should be added the next item of salaries, amounting to $12,172.42 paid to six reverend gentlemen who assisted Bishop Hellmuth in the labor of obtaining money for the public on, shall we say, university pretences. So that to collect $92,-839.82 (we omit the bishop's subscription of $10,000), the expenses foot up to $25,602.96! But to proceed, the bishop then transferred his old boys' college to the Western university at the price of $67,000. The property was not worth $30,000, it would not bring $20,000 to day under the hammer. The main building we hear has been condemned as unsafe and unfit for habitation, and is now vacant; as for the other buildings, most of them have fallen down and the grounds are a wilderness; anything more dreary or desolate than the salaries, amounting to $12,172.42 paid to six reverend gentlemen who assisted Bishop Hellmuth in the labor of obtaining money for the public on, shall we say, university pretences. So that to collect $92, 839.82 (we omit the bishop's subscription of $10,000), the expenses foot up to $25, 602.96! But to proceed, the bishop then transferred his old boys' college to the Western university at the price of $67,000. The property was not worth $30,000, it would not bring $20,000 to-day under the hammer. The main building we hear has been condemned as unsafe and unfit for habitation, and is now vacant; as for the other buildings, most of them have fallen down and the grounds are a wilderness; anything more dreary or desolate than the present aspect of the Western university property it is difficult to conceive.

However, $67,000 was the price, and deducting the mortgage against it, the side of the sid deducting the mortgage against it, the bishop put down in his pocket $45,100 of the subscription. This mortgage was assumed at $21,900 (see statement), but lo and behold! though the university has been open only three years up to the date of the statement (vide "salaries university staff") yet the Western university is charged with $8,883.75 for interest on their charged with $5,855.75 for interest on their mortgage, or over eight years' interest as well as $7,300, which, we may suppose, though it is not so stated, to be paid on principal, leaving $14,600 of a mortgage still against the property. We also find $1,130 charged for insurance, for how many years we wonder? Another significant fact is that this property that cost many years we wonder? Another sight can't fact is that this property that cost $67,000 to the luckless university was in such a state that we find $85,722.68 in three items charged for "repairs," for no additions have been erected. With all these repairs, the property is to-day in the state we have described.

To sum up, Bishop Hellmuth and his clerical assistants collected $102,839. Out of this have been paid :

Expenses of collection ... $
And the Old Boys' college to cost as follows: Paid the bishop for his property $67,000 less mortgage $21,-900.

... 45,100 ... 7,300 ... 8,883 ... 1,130 ... 8,722 And for repairs.....

Leaving $6,102 for this well endowed university wherewith to pay off a mortgage of $14,600.

$96,737

There is but one thing more which we should point out, in the subscription amounting to $102,839, as above stated we have included three special subscriptions, viz.:

Dr. Heilmuth or his way, and we wish it to be distinctly understood that we do not impute to him any but the most proper and business-like motives so far as we are concerned. He may collect money in England and make any use of it he pleases; that is a matter for him and his English friends to settle. But the Western university and its financiers are a matter of public interest to us in Ontario.

This Western university does not now possess a faculty of arts. The present bishop of Huron, Right Rev. M. Baldwin, as might be expected from a man of his integrity, will have nothing to do with the university, and has moved back the divinity school to its old quarters in Huron college. There is a faculty managed by half a dozen local medical men who give lectures gratis to a score or so of medical students. Half a score of practising lawyers in London have started a "faculty of law," and propose under the Western university charters to turn out. I. D. D. lawyers in London have started a "faculty of law," and propose under the Western university charter to turn out L. L. D's, D. C. L's., etc., ad. lib, and the Free Press congratulates the citizens of London upon this Western university, and boasts loudly of the "only law school" in the province. The attention of the minister of education is directed to the act incorporating the Western University, 41 Vic., 70, and we beg to ask him whether it is in accordance with the letter or the spirit of that act that this Western university should continue to exercise university power in act that this Western university should continue to exercise university power in view of the financial and other statements we publish to-day. The balance on hand of $6,702, as shown on 3rd Sept., 1882, has dwindled to nothing by this time; the university property is about to be sold for the mortgage upon it. Its law faculty has to borrow a room in the county court house to hold its lectures. Where the doctors hold forth we know not. There is not a dollar of eadowment for any purpose: no professors. no not. There is not a dollar of eadowment for any purpose; no professors, no libraries, no scientific apparatus or other educational equipment of any description. An explanation is in order from the promoters and administration of this seat of learning, located in our Fruitful West.—

A SPLENDID CHIME OF BELLS FOR ST. JOHN, N. B.

From Baltimore Sun, Dec. 7th.

The steamship "Chatham," of the M, and M. Transportation Company's line of steamships to Boston, which sails to-day, will carry as part of her cargo a magnificent chime of ten bells, composed of the famous set of chimes that were exhibited by Messrs. Henry McShane & Co., of this city, at the World's Exposition held at New Orleans, La., last winter, and which, owing to their magnificent purity of tone and correctness of tune, proved one of the leading attractions at that exposition. This chime of ten bells has been purchased by the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, St. John, N. B, and are destined to hang in the spacious tower of that imposing edifice, where they will chime forth sweet sounds and selections of religious music to the edification of that city. The chime is in scale of D major, and includes a flat seventh bell, which will permit music in two different keys, and forms altogether a most complete chime in every respect. A special feature of this chime is that it has three bells, i. c., the first, third and fifth, hung with complete abreach held hangings thus negretice. From Baltimore Sun, Dec. 7th.

the production of this fine set of bells, and Bishop Sweeney is to be congratulated in securing, them for the Cathedral at St.

Imposing Services.

John.

The addition of a very fine organ has added to the beauty of the services at the Roman Catholic Mission very materially. The organ is rich in tone and full in volume of sound, and above all, is played exceedingly well. The choir is an excel-lent one, Father Van Tighem's rich tenor voice being especially noticeable. organ and choir are upstairs, immediately over the chapel, the sound passing down through an opening in the end wall into the chancel. The question one mentally asks on entering is, where is the organ, and how is that far away sound produced? The effect is very pleasant, how-ever, and any one who is fond of music could not help enjoying it. The chapel is prettier than ever, and when it is remembered that Rev. Father Van Tighem has done all the carving and other work bimself, it is simply a marvel.—Fort Mac-Leod, N. W. T., Gazette, Nov. 10.

Always after eating, an intense burning sensation in the stomach, at times very distressing, caused a drooping and languid feeling, which would last for several hours after eating. I was recommended by Mr. Popplewell, Chemist, of our city, to try Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, and I am thankful to say that I have not been better for years; that burning sensation and languid feeling has all gone, and food does not lie heavy on my stomach. A Help to Good Digestion.

In the British Medical Journal Dr. W. Roberts, of England, discusses the effect of liquors, tea, coffee and cocco on digestion. All of them retard the chemical processes, but most of them stimulate the glandular activity and muscular contractions. Distilled spirits retard the salivary or peptic digestion but alightly when sparingly used.

Wines were found to be highly injurious to salivary digestion. On peptic digestion all wines exert a retarding influence. They stimulate the glandular and muscular activity of the stomach. Effervescent wines exert the greatest amount of good with the least harm to digestion. When one's digestion is out of order everything goes awry, unless, as in the case of T. T. Seals, of Bellaire, Ohio, who had bad dyspepsis for seven years, the digestive apparatus is kept in apple-pie eating order by Warner's Tippecanoe, the best appetite producer and regulator in the world.

Tea, even in minute quantities, completely paralyzes the action of the saliva

Tea, even in minute quantities, completely paralyzes the action of the saliva. The tannin in strong tea is injurious. Weak tea should be used, if at all. Strong coffee and cocoa are also injurious if used in excess.—The Cosmopolitan.

What is This Disease That is Coming

What is This Disease That is Coming Upon Us?

Like a thief at night it steals in upon us unawares. Many persons have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A sort of sticky alime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint all-gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not satisfy. The eyes are sunken, the hands and feet become cold and feel clammy. After a while a cough sets in, at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish colored expectoration. The afflictions are supported to the course of the while a cough sets in, at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish colored expectoration. The afflicted one feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any rest. After a time he becomes nervous, irritable, and gloomy, and has evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become costive; the skin is dry and hot at times; the blood becomes thick and stagnant; the whites of the eyes become tinged with yellow, the urine is scanty and high-colored, depositing a sediment after standing. There is frequently a spitting up of the food, sometimes with a sweetish taste; this is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great prostration and weakness. All of these symptoms are in turn present. It is symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms. It has been found that medical men have mistaken the nature of this disease. Some have treated it for a liver complaint, others for kidney disease, etc., etc., but none of the various kinds of treatment have been attended with success, because the remedy should be such cess, because the remedy should be such as to act harmoniously upon each one of these organs, and upon the stomach as well; for in Dyspepsia (for this is really what the disease is) all of these organs partake of this disease and require a remedy that will act upon all at the same time. Seigel's Curative Syrup acts like a charm in this class of complaints, giving almost immediate relief. The following letters from chemists of standing in the community where they live show in what

What is Catarrh?

Catarrh is a dangerous disease which thousands are consciously or unconsciously suffering from. It is a muco-purulent discharge caused by the presence of a vegetable parasite in the lining membrane of the nose. The predisposing causes are a morbid state of the blood, the blighted corpuscle of tubercle, the cern poison of symbils mercury. the germ poison of syphilis, mercury, toxomæa, from the retention of the effete matter of the skin, suppressed perspiration, badly ventilated sleeping apartments and the germination of other poisons in the blood. Irritated by these, the lining membrane of the nose is ever ready for the reception of the parasite and which rapidly suppressed suppressed in the postrile and which rapidly spreads up the nostrils and down the fauces, or back of the throat, causing ulceration of the throat; up the eustachian tubes, causing deafness; bur rowing in the vocal chords, causing hoarseness; usurping the proper struc-ture of the bronchial tubes, ending in pulmonary consumption and death. Many ingenious specifies for the cure of catarrh have been invented, but without success, until a physician of long standing discovered the exact nature of the disease and the only appliance which will permanently destroy the par-asite, no matter how aggravated the case. Sufferers should send stamp at once for descriptive pamphlet on catarrh, to the business manager, A. H. Dixon & Son, 305 King street west, Toronto, Canada.

SCHOOL FURNITURE.

The Bennett Furnishing Co., ef London, Ont., make a specialty of manufacturing the latest designs in Church and School Furniture. The Catholic Clergy of Canada are respectfully invited to send for catalogue and prices before awarding contracts. We have lately put in a complete set of Pews in the Brantford Catholic Church, and for many years past have been favored with contracts from a number of the Clergy in other parts of Ontario, in all cases the most entire satisfaction having been expressed in regard to quality of work, lowness of price, and quickness of execution. Such has been the increase of business in this special line that we found it necessary some time since to establish a branch office in Giesgow, Scotland, and we are now engaged manufacturing Pews for new Churches in that country and Ireland. HER CROSS AND MINE.

"This is my cross—here, Sister, see:
The only one I have to bear."
A flash of gold fell over me,
And precious lights were everywher

She was a lovely, restless thing,
With time in clossom at her feet,
And on her haud the enchanted ring
Whose promise always is so sweet.

I was a nun. My fearless eyes Had looked their last on youth. I gu At something quiet in the skies, And veiled my face against the rest.

My cross was dark and darkly stained. Even from the heart of one who died invisible drops of blood had rained Theroon, when love was crucified.

That laughing girl could pity me, Because she iancied from my cross The world had fallen. Such as she Still think to lose the world—is loss Yet, heavier is her cross than mine, For in the fatal jewels there (Oh, will she ask for help divine?) I know she has the world to bear.
