THURSDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1920

WHO AM I?

Canada's Worst Enemy Makes a Confession.

I am more powerful than the combined armies of the world.
I am more deadly than bullets and I have wrecked more homes than the mightiest of siege guns.

I steal in Canada alone over $30, 000,000 each year.

I spare no one, and I find my victims among the rich and poor alike, the young and the old, the strong and the weak; widows and orphans know me.

I have massacred thousands upon thousands of wage-earners in a year.
I lurk in unseen places and do most of my work silently.

You are warned against me, but you heed me not.

I am relentless. I am everywhere: in the house, on the street, in the factory, at the railroad crossing and on the sea.

I bring sickness, degradation and death, and yet few seek to avoid me.
I destroy, crush and maim. I give nothing but I take all.

I am your worst enemy.

I AM CARELESSNESS.

BRITISH EMPIRE WAR RELIEF FUND

To Combat Disease and Distress in War-Stricken Areas in Europe and Asia.

SUFFERING IN EUROPE

Epidemic Diseases Spreading Rapidly in Poverty-Stricken Populations.

While the concern of the great nations of the earth for commercial security and predominance, the smaller nations in Europe are struggling for life itself.

Working in populations greatly weakened by lack of food and clothing, exposure and the mental anxieties of the war, contagious diseases, particularly typhus, have made their appearance and are doing deadly work among the men, women and children of the stricken countries.
The increased privations, due to winter conditions, will give a further impetus to the spread of disease and the expert advisers of the Red Cross predict that, unless steps are taken to check it, the epidemic of typhus now raging may threaten the whole world on account of the rapidity with which it spreads.

In the great area between the Baltic and the Black Sea there is appalling misery. This territory includes the new Baltic States, Poland, Czecho-Slovakia, Ukraine, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Montenegro, Albania, Serbia and Eastern Russia. In these countries there is lack of medicines and sanitary appliances. Doctors, nurses and hospital equipment are pitifully inadequate. Food and clothing are insufficient to make life tolerable, and disease, bereavement and suffering are present in practically every household.

In Western Russia, Poland and Galicia, typhus has been raging for four years. Instead of diminishing, it is spreading, as the following figures show:

Year	Poland and Galicia.	Typhus Cases
1916	34,538
1917	42,840
1918	97,082
1919	231,206
1920	*280,000

*Based on monthly average available.

Typhus is an intensely destructive and rapidly spreading disease, and its extension throughout the world can only be arrested by the introduction of enforcement of strict hygiene and sanitation in affected populations. The infection is carried by parasites in the clothing, and clothing material is so scarce in the suffering countries of Europe that the poorest people are driven to wearing the infected garments of those who have died of the disease.

Typhus is running its course in Bessarabia without effective means of control. Owing to the low salaries paid to State Doctors, and lack of means of transportation, the rural districts are largely without medical attendance. Everywhere there is a lack of soap, linen and clothes. In Roumania medical supplies cost 12 times, in Poland 50 times and in Czecho-Slovakia 14 times the normal cost.

In the Ukraine villages of 2,000 to 3,000 population, sometimes half the people have been taken ill at the same time. Some doctors have had to treat areas in which there were 20,000 to 30,000 typhus patients at once, and could get no medical supplies.

In addition to typhus, which is the most prevalent disease, tuberculosis, dysentery, scarlet fever and smallpox have taken strong hold upon the weakened constitutions of millions of people. In Roumania tuberculosis is spreading in an alarming and unprecedented manner.

According to an estimate procured by the London Times there is only one doctor for every 150,000 inhabitants in Galicia. This year the mortality reached the alarming figure of 60 per cent.

In Jugo-Slavia the Union International for the saving of children found 500,000 war orphans, of whom 100,000 had neither father nor mother.

Doctor Livingston Farrand, chairman of the Central Committee of the American Red Cross, who has just returned from Europe, states: "The chief problem is the children of Europe. Red Cross estimates indicate at least 11,000,000 children in Europe now fatherless from war, and who face the next few years without hope of adequate care unless outside assistance is given. Poland has 500, 000 orphans, most of whom are living in camps for destitute refugees.
In Czecho-Slovakia, Austria and Hungary there are at least 1,000,000 orphans, of whom 5,000 were found recently wandering like animals in the Ruthenian mountains."

Explanatory Plan.

A Canadian Red Cross appeal on behalf of the British Empire Fund, will be made throughout Canada, particularly during armistice week.
Arrangements will be made by Provincial Red Cross Divisions for receiving contributions within their respective areas. The receiving officers will transmit the funds to their respective headquarters, which will forward them to the headquarters of the Canadian Red Cross Society. The Canadian contribution to the British Empire Fund will be administered in Europe under the direction of the British Red Cross in co-operation with the League of Red Cross Societies.

MY AUTO, 'TIS OF THEE.

My auto, 'tis of thee, short road to poverty—of thee I chant. I blew a pile of dough on you three years ago, now you refuse to go—or won't or can't. Through town and countryside you were my joy and pride, a happy day. I loved the gaudy hue, the nice white tires new; but you're down and out for true, in every way.
To thee, old rattlebox, came many bumps and knocks; for thee I grieve.
Badly thy top is torn; frayed are thy seats and worn; the whooping cough affects thy horn, I do believe. Thy perfume swells the breeze, while good folks choke and wheeze as we pass by. I paid for thee a price, 'twould buy a mansion twice; now everybody's yelling "ice"—I wonder why. Thy motor has the grip, thy 'spark plugs have the pip, and woe is thine. I, too, have suffered chills, fatigue and kindred ills, endeavoring to pay my bills, since thou were mine. Gone is my bank roll now, no more 'twould choke a cow, as once before. Yet, if I had the mon, so help me, John—amen, I'd buy a car again and speed some more.—Auto
