imprisonment for debt, which came into force in this Province on May 1st, has been going the rounds of the press, in which the following statement is made:

—"Any execution issued up to and including the 30th of April will not be interfered with by the new act, the service of the same being in compliance with the old act, although the debtor is arrested after the first of May under such execution." Serious doubts have been expressed as to whether this is a correct interpretation of the act, and many who are well learned in the law believe it is not correct. The opinion of those is that no debtor can be now of those is that no debtor can be now race had taken place during the afternoo careful as there looks to be room for some very interesting litigation.
