F. J. PORTER.
A New Volume of Poems.

"Poems; Sonnets, Lyrics, Miscellaneous," is the title of a small volume just published from the pen of Mr. E.
Blackadder, B. A. Very neat and tasty is the little work in appearance, and in the matter we note a striking advance over that of his first volume published a few years ago. The sonnets "To Sir John Macdonald" and "To the Fathers of Acadia College" are especially good.

The little lyric, "The Gaspareau," is a gem and is in our opinion the best thing he has written in this line. The last poem, "The Fate of the Gods," is doubtless the best piece of work that has appeared from Mr. Blackadder's pen.
In lines which often reach near to the sublime, he pictures the overthrow of the Olympian deities,—made immortal, in name, at least, by the famous bards of old,—on the introduction of Christianity.
The volume reflects much credit on its author, who is rapidly making a name for himself as a writer and poet. We commend the little work to our readers, and trust that it may find many purchasers.

Several of the New York papers have recently commented upon the fact that the Canadians now in their city taking in the yacht race were all intensely English in their sympathies and were hoping to see the English boat carry off the cup. This appears to be rather a surprise and disappointment to our American cousins, especially those who have been persuading themselves that the people of the Dominion were just yearning for annexation.—Exchange.

Mr. Burton Harrison has written a new novelette, dealing in the main with the "fashionables" of New York at the Horse Show, which The Ladies' Home Journal is about to begin. Mr. W. T.
Smedley has illustrated the story.

The New Herald, having discontinued its weekly edition, asserts as a reason for it that the legitimate field of weekly news is now filled to the satisfaction of local readers by the country and town papers.

Mr W. C. Archibald has begun his packing of fruit in tins. He purports to fill six thousand tins this year with tomatoes, plums, and crab and Gravenstein apple. Besides his own produce, which, which this year has been exceptionally good, Mr. Archibald will require limited quantities from outside growers.
The plums are almost invariably picked too green for this use as well as for the general market. Growers who have fruit to dispose of for this purpose will bear in mind that the plums must be well ripened and the crab apples picked from the tree by hand—free from spots and bruises.

WOLFVILLE, N.S., SEPT. 20, 1895.

Local and Provincial.

Rev. D. J. Fraser and Rev. Joseph Hale exchanged pulpits last Sunday morning.

Rev. D. J. Fraser will preach his farewell sermon in St. Andrew's church next Sunday evening.

The Wolfville Methodist Sunday-school held its annual picnic at Oak Island, Avonport, on Wednesday.

In the three-minute race at Kentville on Thursday last week Mr F. J.

good showing in the western orchards of this county, as well as the Old Yellow Belleshore.

A building at Kingsport belonging to Mr Robert Cox was destroyed by fire last Friday morning. The building contained the post-office and an unoccupied store. All the postal matter with the exception of a few letters was saved.

To Lads.—Part of the "Ladens," now occupied by Mrs. Cairns, was assigned given about the middle of October.

Mr R. C. Leslie, of Halifax, has purchased from Mrs. Cowan of this town her fine property situated on Main St., and Mrs. Leslie with her three children moved in last week. Mr Leslie is engaged in the lobster business in the Magdalen Islands, and left for there last Tuesday.

We extend a cordial welcome to the new comers.

The Dominion Atlantic Railway station at Wilmet was totally destroyed by fire on Tuesday night. The agent, Mr Fosson, left the station about five o'clock, making everything fast and secure. At 10.30 the building was discovered to be in flames. There was but little freight in store. The fire is doubtless the work of an incendiary.

We were shown a frank this week by Mr C. A. Patiquin, in the shape of a full-grown Gravenstein apple and a pear taken from the same tree. About two years ago Mr William Jackson, of Del-haven, was grafting a pear tree, and by mistake a Gravenstein sign was put in, and he now gathers apples and pears from the same tree. Verily this is a wonderful country.

The twelfth annual meeting of the N.
S. branch of the Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church will open in Wesley church, Yarmouth, Sept. 24th, at 9.30 o'clock, a. m. Miss Clark, of Fowal, P. E. I., who has labored five years among the Indians of Chilliwack B. C., will be present. A large attendance of delegates from all parts of the province is expected and the meeting promises to be one of interest.

The large number of visitors entertained this summer at "Forrest Home," the residence of Mr and Mrs Henry Palmer-ter is pleasant evidence that the genial hospitality of the host and hostess has been fully appreciated. Among the number who have found a pleasant rest and welcome with Mr and Mrs Palmerter may be mentioned Mr and Mrs Manly Hayward, Mrs Robert McCarty, Dr. and Mrs J. P. Steedman, Miss Helen Steedman, Master Ernest Steedman, Miss Jessie R.
Snow and Mrs L. H. Williams, all of Massachusetts. Also, Mrs Boyden, of Charleston, Me and Mrs Elmer Palmerter, of East Boston, Mr and Mrs John Palmerter, of Milton, and Mrs John Cord, of Everett.

the Rev. Wm. Brown at the residence of the bride's parents. The bride's wedding suit was light fawn silk and she travelled in a blue suit. The happy couple left by the evening express for Avondale, their future home.

Miss Tucker, of Parrsboro, visited her brother at Acadia Villa on Wednesday.

Another County Father Gone.

The ACADIAN is called upon this week to chronicle the death of a well-known and highly-esteemed resident of our county—Mr George Hamilton, of Grand Pres. A man of sterling character, kindly spirit, ever interested in the welfare of the community in which he lived and the county at large, he will be much missed.

Though reaching the advanced age of 86 years, his health, previously to his last brief illness, was ever good, and his sudden death was a shock to the community. For many years Mr Hamilton was a foremost member of the King's County Agricultural Society, in which he held the office of Secretary for a long time, and did invaluable service to the county in this line. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. The service at the house was conducted by Rev. Mr. Hind assisted by Rev. Wm.
Brown, and at the grave by Rev. D.
J. Fraser. Large numbers including residents of many different parts of the county were present at the funeral to bestow their last tribute of respect to the departed. We extend to the beloved family our sincere sympathy.

The funeral of the late Mrs W. S.
Wallace took place on Friday afternoon last. The large number of friends and acquaintances who attended testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held by all. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Trotter and Mrs. Higgins and Kistreded. The floral offerings were very pretty—especially those of Wolfville Division and the W. C. T. U.—Mrs Wallace having been an esteemed member of both these societies. After the service at the house the remains, followed by a long procession of sympathizing friends, were conveyed to Willow Bank Cemetery for interment.
