Mr. J. W. Selfridge found a number of strawberry blossoms and ripe fruit one day this week.
The pulpit of the Methodist church was acceptably filled last Sunday morning by Rev. H. T. DeWolfe.
Miss Daisy West is satisfactorily performing the duties of town clerk during the absence of Mr. Caldwell.
The teachers of Acadia Seminary are at home the first Tuesday afternoon of each month after 4.30 p. m.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schofield have removed to Prof. Haycock's place on Summer street, where they are now residing.
The Art Embroidery Club will meet on Tuesday evening of next week at the home of Mrs. S. A. Stevens, Acadia street.

It is expected that Rev. H. T. DeWolfe will occupy the pulpit of the Wolfville Baptist church on Sunday next, morning and evening.
Miss Annie Hay Murray, late teacher at the College of Music, Washington, D. C., will receive pupils in vocal culture after Oct. 1st at her residence on Linden avenue.
WANTED.—Dressmaking or plain sewing by the day. For particulars apply at the residence of E. Haverstock, Maple avenue, or by mail to Seamstress, Box 97, Wolfville, N. S. 12in.

Miss Rosamond Archibald has resigned her position as teacher in the Wolfville public school, and her place is being filled temporarily by Miss Helena Hamilton, a former successful teacher.
The pulpit of St. Andrew's church was filled last Sunday by Rev. Dr. Davidson, of Columbia University, who spent a few days at his home in this town. Rev. Mr. Wright, the pastor, spent Sunday at Parraburo.

Capt. and Mrs. Tingley wish to express in this public manner their sincere appreciation of the kindness of their neighbors last Saturday in connection with the fire. They are especially grateful to the firemen who answered the alarm so promptly and worked so courageously, thus saving their home.
Acadia Seminary and Horton Academy are both open with an excellent attendance. The new teachers are taking up their work with enthusiasm and interest, and everything looks bright.

In two weeks more the college will open and present indications are that the enrollment of students will be large.
Ask your tailor for 'Briny Deep' Serge Stamped 'Briny Deep' Serge' every three yards.
The fire company was called out on Saturday morning last in consequence of a fire on the property of Capt. Tingley, Main street. One of his barns, containing hay and oats belonging to the Wolfville Fruit Land Improvement Co., caught from a bonfire and was totally consumed. Such progress had been made before the fire was discovered that the efforts of the fireman were unavailing. They succeeded, however, in saving the residence, and another barn in a dangerous condition. The buildings were insured.
The staff of the Education Department of Acadia Seminary has been strengthened by the appointment of Miss Frances True, a post-graduate of the Emerson College of Oratory. Miss True is associated with Miss Goodspeed, the efficient head of the department. Special opportunity is thus afforded to any persons desiring general or advanced work in any of the classes in Education, private or special. Miss True will also have charge of the department of Physical Education, having specialized in this work in connection with her course at Emerson in the Posen Gymnasium. A class in Physical Education will be formed for the girls of the town if a sufficient number of parents are interested in it.

Mr. Whitman Newcomb, with his wife and family, have moved into his new residence on Main street.
Messrs Walter and Aubrey Bishop, were among those who attended the exhibition at Halifax last week.
Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Spicer left on Friday for their future home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Miss Potts, of Yarmouth, was in town over Sunday recently, the guest of the Misses Crowell.
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Parker, Mrs. Emerson Bigelow, Mrs. William Rand and Mr. E. M. Beckwith attended the intellectual treat afforded by Rev. James Carruthers' readings from the 'Bonnie Briar Bush' at Canard Presbyterian church on Thursday evening.
Mrs. Alfred Ellis, accompanied by her little son, has returned to her home in Massachusetts, after spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hennigar.
Mrs. Warner, who has spent the past year at Staten Island, New York, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. John DeWolfe.

STEVENS-TURNER.

A very pretty September marriage took place in the church at New Minas on Wednesday morning, 9th inst., when Miss Laura Mae, daughter of Mr. Charles Turner, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Judson Homer Stevens, of Cotuitate, Mass. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. D. Spidel, of the Kentville Baptist church. Immediately at 9 o'clock the bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Fannie L. Nichols, of Aylesford. The groom was attended by Mr. William Turner, brother of the bride, and Miss Lola M. Nichols officiated as bridesmaid. The bride looked charming in a lovely gown of white Paillette Louise silk with veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a large bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid also looked lovely in a dress of white habutai silk trimmed very daintily with insertion and pale blue paillette, and carried a bouquet of orange flowers. Miss Fannie L. Nichols, in blue, was also lovely in attire in pink silk mullin. Evelyia Bishop, in blue, was also lovely in attire. The duty of usher both to the bride and to the groom was performed by Mr. J. D. Spidel. The party would be the gaiter.

Baby's Skin Trouble
ITCHING ECZEMA

For the skin troubles of babyhood Dr. Chase's Ointment acts as a magic cure. It is wonderful how promptly it relieves the irritation and stops the suffering of little ones who are tormented by terrible itching, stinging eruptions, or when their little bodies are covered with a scaly, scurfy eruption. It is the only remedy which relieves so quickly and so completely.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment

This soothing, healing preparation is also useful as a cure for chafing and all skin troubles. Mothers who use it for their babies, will find it the most valuable remedy in their medicine chest. 60 cents a box. Sold by all druggists and by the Manufacturer, Boston, U.S.A.
