Perth Locals

Mr. and Mrs. T. Flowers of Aroostook, were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Squibb, over Sunday.

A. Anderson and Earle Sloat are the new proprietors of Hotel Perth. Leonard Johnston, one of the late proprietors, having given up the business, to take a government course in Fredericton.

Anybody wishing a nice intelligent kitten of angora parentage, and excellent hunters, may have one by calling on the writer. Nobody with children need apply. (who is the writer?)

The Tobique express was unable to make its usual trip on Thursday or Friday. A double header, and wing plow went up late Saturday afternoon, returning to Perth in the night. About seven o'clock, the regular train, with much difficulty made its way towards Perth.

The section crew were obliged to work all day Sunday in the yard. This looks like one of those old fashioned snow storms.

Berbert Hanson who has been living in town during the winter, moved to his home on the Narrows road, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Johnston, returned the first of the week from visiting relatives in Hawshaw and other places.

The young ladies will meet with Mrs. M. L. Jamer on Monday night for the purpose of organizing a basket ball team.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis are rejoicing over the arrival of a little son at their home, on Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Green will entertain the sewing circle at her home, on South Main Street, on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Beatrice Bishop, teacher at Four Falls, was a week-end visitor at the home of her aunt, Mrs. A. E. Hitchcock.

E. Waugh of Five Fingers, was in town last week, the guest of his son, S. E. Waugh. He also made a business trip to Woodstock.

Mrs. Geo. Clark and two children and Mrs. Harriett Lurie are all ill with the grip this week.

Rev. C. M. Waldron who was called to his home in Woodstock a couple of weeks ago on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Waldron was able to return the last of the week and hold service Sunday evening. Mrs. Waldron's condition is much improved.

Sam Winchester has accepted a position in Toronto as truck master, and recently left for that place. We wish him every success in his new occupation.

Miss George Rank is teaching the school at Aroostook Portage. She spent the week-end at her home here.

B. C. Palmer spent the week-end with his family here.

Grand Falls Happenings

Mrs. H. Kent who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Stroup, Mrs. Boley and Mrs. C. McCluskey, left here Monday for her home in Idaho. Meagher Costigan who was operated on in the hospital here last week is coming along fine.

Mrs. Luke Lamioux who has been in the hospital at St. Basil the past month died there on Friday. The body was brought here for burial.

The funeral took place from her home on Monday morning. She leaves four sons, the youngest four years old; an aged mother, several brothers and sisters to mourn their loss. Her daughter, Louise, died a year ago during the flu epidemic.

Albert St. Thomas left here Monday for Idaho, where he expects to stay some time on account of his health.

Miss Marie Wilson is on the sick list the past few days.

F. W. Olmstead was in Woodstock last week on business.

Allan McLaughlin was in Edmundston last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Trocman returned Friday from a two week's visit in St. John.

R. Wagner expects to give a recital in McLaren's Hall sometime next month or, perhaps the first week in April.

The Presbyterian congregation have paid off the debt that has been on their church property for the past 11 years, and feel quite proud to be out of debt once more.

Miss Gilman of the school staff was unable to teach a few days last week on account of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pirie were in Limestone a few days of last week guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Clark.

Wm. Stroup was in Aroostook and Perth Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Wright and Miss Mockler left for a few week's stay in St. John on Saturday.

J. G. Kirkpatrick is spending a few days at his home here.

The worst storm of the season struck here Thursday. The roads are in pretty bad condition now and all the yards piled full of snow.

So far, there has been no cases of the flu here. A few cases of the la grippe but not very severe.

We have two cars No 1. Feed Oats and two cars No 1. C. W.

Seed Oats now on route from the West. Orders are coming in very fast for this stock therefore we would advise you placing your order for your requirements now.

Wm. Pirie & Son, Grand Falls.

Andover News Notes

Mrs. George T. Baird entertained at the dinner hour Sunday very pleasantly, the guests were the staff of the Bank of Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Porter have been quite during the past week.

Sheriff Tibbitts was at Grand Falls on business during the early part of the week.

The Women's Auxiliary of Trinity church met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. G. T. Baird.

Friends regret to hear of the illness of Mrs. P. Heffernan.

The leap year dance given in the Specialty Tuesday evening by the young ladies of the two villages was one of the most pleasant events of the season. A goodly number were present who enjoyed dancing to the fine music furnished by Knowles' orchestra of Fort Fairfield. The hall was prettily decorated. At twelve o'clock refreshments were served and at two all took their departure for home after thanking the young ladies for a most pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Holt of Fort Fairfield were called to Andover on Monday owing to the illness of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Porter.

N. J. Wootton has been confined to the house through illness during the past week.

The Women's Institute met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. A. Gillett with a good attendance. Mrs. McPhail and Mrs. Earle as delegates from the Perth Institute were present. After the program a report as to tag day was given. Over $100 was raised which is to be used toward procuring a fire whistle or bell for both villages. The need of a watering cart was also brought before the meeting and it was determined if possible to raise funds for that purpose. A watering cart is greatly needed for the two villages and if the ladies of the Women's Institute takes this matter in hand it should receive the support of every man and woman in the villages of Andover and Perth.

The Baptist sewing circle met with Mrs. Alfred Griffin Saturday afternoon.

Rev. J. R. Belyea attended the funeral services of Mrs. Stephen Watson of Four Falls on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Watson had many friends in Andover who regret to hear of her death and who extend sympathy to the mourning family.

A quiet marriage was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage Wednesday evening, Feb. 19, when Merle Clayton Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brown and Miss Grace Tapley, of Carlingford, were made man and wife. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. E. Kochaly. The young couple were attended by Miss Claire McAuley and Bertrum Traford. A large number of friends join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Brown a long life full of happiness.

Mrs. W. A. Gillett will entertain the ladies of the Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Gertrude Tibbitts leaves Wednesday for an extended trip to Vancouver, Calgary, Salt Lake City, Denver and Portland. Her friends wish her a safe and pleasant trip.

The Round Table Literary Club will meet Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. H. W. McAlary.
