Statement from Saginaw.

New York, Dec. 28.—A despatch to the World quotes the London Mail's

Madrid correspondent as saying:

"Intimate friends of Senor Sagasta supplied the following statements made by him a few days before his illness became serious:

"The time when the peace negotiations were in progress was in time of great bitterness to me.

"Many a night I could not sleep and many a day I could not eat, so great was my anxiety, so deep my fears that what had happened would happen.

"I know the Americans, and I guessed what they were going to do.

"As a rule a victorious nation makes generous concessions to the vanquished people in order to make their victory more humane, and to honor the foe.

"From the United States we have now no generosity but only with levity and deceit, carried to the extreme of interpreting capriciously an important word in the text of the protocol in order to violate the principles they had agreed to. We have to suffer all this to prevent greater evils.

"In Cuba our army though themselves dishonored by accepting peace without having fought against their foe.

"Now that is all ended and we must look ahead to the future.

"Elements are not wanting for our regeneration and our work will be seen in time.

"The lesson inflicted upon us has been hard but it will be fruitful."
