Ma. W. J. STILMAN, the art critic, writes to the New York Evening Post that M. Håbert, director of the Academic Francaise at Rome, "one of the most thoughtful of modern French painters, and perhaps the best representative still living of the great postic Franch school of art," says of Mr. Cole's engravings now appearing in the Century, that "the had never seen such work on wood, and did not suppose wood engraving to be capable of it."

The Jesuit Fathers are to publish a monthly review of current thought as touching on questions of religion and education. Some time since an editorial committee of four Fathers was named to organize the work. They have already smiller than the work. They have already smiller completed their arrangements to make it one of the most enjoyable days of the season. Dancing, Swinging and Amusements of various kinds will be carried on.

It will conform more closely to the general type of the Forum and North American Review than any of the existing Catholic periodicals, with the addition of a special book department.

With Ayer's Hair Vigor. Its cleanliness, beneficial effects on the scalp, and lasting perfume commend it for universal toilet use. It keeps the hair soft and silken, preserves its color, prevents it from falling, and, if the hair has become weak or thin, promotes a new growth. "To restore the original color of my hair, which had turned prematurely gray, I need Ayer's Hair Vigor with entire success. I cheerfully testify to the

of this preparation."—Mrs. P. H. Davidson, Alexandria, I.a.

"I was afflicted some three years with scalp disease. My hair was falling out and what remained turned gray. I was induced to try Ayer's Hair Vigor, and in a few weeks the disease in my scalp disappeared and my hair resumed its original color."—(Rev.) S. S. Sima, Pastor U. B. Church, St. Bernice, Ind.
"A few years ago I suffered the entire loss of my hair from the effects of tetter. I hoped that after a time nature would repair the loss, but I waited in vain. Many remedies were suggested, none, however, with such proof of merit as Ayer's Hair Vigor, and I began to use it. The result was all I could have desired. A growth of hair soon came out all over my head, and grew to be as soft and heavy as I ever had, and of a natural color, and firmly set."—J. H. Pratt, Spofford, Texas.
