The Charlottetown Herald.

NEW SERIES

CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1910

Vol. XXXIX, No. 10

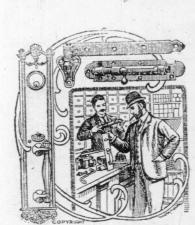

Dark Cut Tobacco in tins and packages. This is one of the

COOLEST SMOKES

On the market. Try a 10 cent package. You'll enjoy it. All up-to-date grocers and druggists sell it.

HICKEY & NICHOLSON Tobacco Co., Ltd.

Ch'town, Phone 345.

For New

We carry the finest line of

Hardware

Architects, Builders and Contractors, will find our line of goods the newest in design, the most adaptable and improved, and of the highest standard of merit in quality and durability.

Also a full line of pumps and piping.

Stanley, Shaw & Peardon.

June 12, 1907.

Fall and Winter weather calls for prompt attention

PRINCE STREET, CHARLOTTETOWN

We are still at the old stand,

Giving all orders strict attention.

Our work is reliable, and our prices please our customers.

H. McMILLAN.

Company Coal Dominion RESERVE COAL.

As the season for importing Coal in this Province is again near, we beg to advise dealers and conconsumers of Coal that we are in a position to grant orders for cargoes of Reserve, Screened, Run of mine, Nut and Slack Coal, F. O. B., a loading piers Sydney, Glace Bay or Louisburg,

Prices quoted on application, and all orders will receive our careful attention by mail or wire.

Reserve Coal is well known all over this Island. and is most extensively used for domestic and Schooners are always in demand during the season and chartered at highest current rates of freight. Good despatch guaranteed schooners at loading piers.

Peake Bros. & Co.,

Selling Agents for Prince Edward Island for Dominion Coal Company.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., April 21, 1909-4i

Watch Department.

VERY FINE timekeeping watches with 21 jewels adjusted to heat, cold, and five perhaps, in the world. It lies nestpositions. Also 7, 15 and 17 at the foot of the Knockmesldown jewel watches, from the present such a dreary uninviting larger men's size to the tiny watch worn in wrist brace- Monastery loom up among the dislets.

Watches cleaned and put in as one draws near, and the Monasfirst class order.

Ring Department.

Ladies' rings set with dia-side; and that by the most indefaeigmonds, ruby, opal, amythyst, pearl and other gems. Sig-unreclaimed soil, planted trees, net rings for engraving, em- now wonderful Monastery. blem rings, children's rings. Rings repaired, stones re-set.

Buildings Spectacle Department.

We fit spectacles and eye- these Trappist monks, the charity and extreme kindness shown to fields, and submit his will to that of glasses up, both in frames every visitor do not leave such a superior.

Breakfast, and in rimless, after testing each eye separately or on Drs. prescription.

E. W. TAYLOR.

South Side Queen Square, City.

Fall and Winter Weather. Souvenir Post Cards

Are a nice thing to send to friends abroad. We have a nice selection of City and Provincial views to select from Cleaning and Making of Clothing. The following are some of the titles.

One color 2 cents each.

St Joseph's Convent, Ch'town Bishop's Palace & Church Ch'town St Dunstan's College, " Notre Dame Convent, Hillsborough Bridge Soldiers Monument

Interior St Dunstan's Cathedral, Charlottetown View of Charlottetown from Victoria, Park

Colored Cards 2 for 5 cents.

Victoria Row, Charlottetown | Pioneer Family, five genera Block House Poinl, City Hospital, Crossing the Capes Str Stanley in ice Str Minto in ice Apple Blossoms Travellers Rest Beautiful Autumn Terrace of Rocks Catching Smelts at S'Side Sunset at S'side Harbor Summer St, Summerside High School,

Among the Birches A Morning Walk, Bonshaw Trout Fishing A Rustic Scene North Cape By Still Waters The Border of the Woods Harvesting Scene A Shady Nook Surt Bathing, North Cape Looking Seaward

We also have a large variety of Comic Cards at one cent each. Any number of cards will be sent by mail providing one cent extra is added for each 10 cards.

EUREKA TEA.

If you have never tried our Eureka Tea it will pay you jects—Death, Judgment, Heaven, monks to every visitor is proverbial, making a visit. They declared to do so. It is blended especially for our trade, and our tate until balf past three, when the pression among most of the south of ent, fascinating man they had ever sales on it show a continued increase. Price 25 cents singing of the office of Marins and Ireland peasantry. The sick, and met; and I am afraid if he comes

R. F. Maddigan & Co.

Eureka Grocery,

QUEEN STREET, CHARLOTTETOWN.

Life in a Trappist Monas-

The famous Monastery of Mt. Melleray is situated about four miles rom the little village of Osppoquin County Waterford, and is one or the nost interesting places of its kind, ing among bleak and barren rocks nountains, which at a distance scene to the eye of an approaching

The first impression usually form ed, as the white ashed walls of the taut bills, is one of surprise and curiosity that such a place was ever phosen for human habitation. But tery comes into full view, this impression quickly vanishes.

The visitor is told that some eighty years ago the place whereon the Monastery now stands was a barren wilderness with scarcely a bit of vegetation to relieve the gloomy appearance of the mountain able zeal and arduous labor a little band of Trappist monks-exiled rom France-cultivated that bard, dowers and hedges, and built the

Today the place presents the appearance of a prosperous little hamlet with its church, its school, its various buildings, its beautiful farm yards, teeming with herds of wellfed cattle and flocks of poultry, and its fields of ripening wheat and green pastures. But the material surroundings of the Monastery, the

The Trappist order-to which the nonks in Mount Melleray belongdates back to the beginning of the sixth century when the Rule of St. Benedict was established. These Trappist, or Cistercian monks, in contradistinction to the Benedictines, bserve the Rule of St. Benedict to the very letter in the Benedictines such particulars as per petual silence manual labor, abstinence from every form of flesh meat, and in the observance of the canonical hours for singing or reciting the offices of the n the eleventh century, St. Bernard are now generally known as Trapreformer, De La Rance, prevailed upon his fellow monks to adopt the strict observance of the Rule of St. The monks in Mount Melleray sing the offices of Tierce, Sext, None.

lead a life of seclusion from the and Vespers. world with the primary object of promoting the interests of the soul. sense a weight and bindrance to the fish or flesh meat. spirit; and that it is especially wooden crucifix and two printed feeling and of music."

places in the church choir reciting ing morning to begin another day visit to their bouse is thus described the Little Office of the Virgin. This of labor and prayer. lasts about half an hour, after which / Tourists from all parts of the "When I came home I found both the Abbot reads aloud three chap- civilized world have visited Mount of my girls raving about the Pope's which chiefly consists of many heartily given.

monasteny is a meeting place where, and the same good treatment and in the presence of the entire com- attention. He would always de munity, each monk prostrates be- part without giving any offering t fore the Lord Abbot, tells aloud his his kind entertainers.

any slight unnecessary noise is Journal. matter for self-accusation in the The most serioins faul', however,

s the breaking of the inviolable rule of silence, and is always visited by severe penance,

The penances vary according to the gravity of the fault confessed. The most usual, however, are the monk to lie across the threshold of the refectory door for the community to step over as one by one they enter; kissing the brethren's feet as they sit at table: eating dinner seated on the bare floor; and long public prostrations in the church. It is no unusual sight to see some old monk, whose name is known in fields of art and literature-or who before joining the order was a wealthy man of the world-perform ing some public penance, or perhaps engaged in the most menial labor.

Humility and self-denial are in a stilled into every action of the Trap marvelous work accomplished by pist's daily life-for he has to wash

Breakfast, which is by no means does the rigid ascetic life led by the a dainty repast, is served at seven members of this strange religious o'clock; it consists of eight ounces of rye bread and a half pint of milk; this meal is partaken by the monk Mass is celebrated.

to attend this Mass, which is sung and celebrated with all the pomp and ceremony of the Roman ritual. After High Mass the work of the day begins. Each monk is assigned to some particular occupation. Tee majority of them labor in the fields: others teach in the monastery school or college; attend to the wants of the guests; look after the farmyards; and work at varigus trades The monastery has its own medider is sometimes colled Cistercians | cine department—tailor, blacksmith carpenter, and shoemaker workshops -where certain monks follow their introduced the strict observance of own individual trades. The monks the Rule of St. Benedict; but they supply all the needs of the guesthouse, college and monastery, and pists from the Monastery of La very seldom have they to go to the Trappe in France, where the saintly outside world for any of life's necessaries. At various times throughout the day they quit their employment and repair in single file to the church choir to recite or

Dinner is served at three o'clock ; it is the second and last meal of the The central idea underlying their day, and consists of strictly vegemode of life is, that the body is in a table food; for the monks never eat

When not engaged in some partic meritorious to refuse gratification ular occupation the monks retire to to all those appetites and instincts, their cells to pass the spare moments that have their rise in our physical in study, contemplation, or prayer. nature. They, therefore, by the To them every moment of time is a most singenious self-denial and treasure of inestimable value. They mortification of the body, endeavor never indulge in any form of recreto make sure of the salvation of their ation; they never speak save to the souls. They are one of the very Abbot and then only in a case of the conclusion His Lordship was few religious communities who obnecessity: and observe the strict Rule of St. Benedict in every parnecessity. His Lordship replied serve to the letter the strict monastic rules of the Middle Ages.

In this advanced age of luxury, ease, and wealth, an account of the At seven o'clock at night the endaily life of the monks of Mount tire community assemble to sing the Mellaray may interest, if not sur- office of Complin. It is the last ser-

In Mount Melleray the monks sive. The tones or airs to which grace that was at the disposal of all arise from their bed of straw at two the monks sing the psalm; of the by fidelity to her laws, and also o'clock in the morning. They have Royal Prophet are most inspiring spoke words of commendation and no dressing to do as they sleep in and beautiful. Their rendering of encouragement to both teachers and their coarse hair shirts and gray the "Nunc Dimittig" and the "Salve pupils. habits of rough material in a little Reginal has been truly styled by cell whose only ornaments are a an expert authority as "the soul of Mr. John W Foster's Diplomatic retired to sleep the "sleep of the who was Papal Nuncio in Spain At ten minutes after two they just" on their hard beds of straw- when Mr, Foster was American Amare standing in their respective to be awakened at two the follow- bassador there. Rampolla's first ters of a book on one of four sub- Melleray. The kindness of the Nuncio, who had just been here Hell-upon which the monks medi and has passed into a household ex him the most interesting, intellige The monks are masters of the ially, find a warm welcome in their religion,"-Casket. Gregorian Chant, and as the notes hospital guest house; and besides of the organ steal out on the morn- no one is ever asked to pay for board The Finanzahronik, a Garman ing air and are wafted to the ears of when at the monastery. Every organ published in London, immedia house they tend to fill the weary- welcome. If a visitor or guest warned the German people that, laden worldling with thoughts not gives an offering it is received—but however the elections might go, a to anyone suffering from heart trouble psalms, verses of Scripture, homilies Once a wealthy tourist-an and long prayers, is finished about American-who heard of this cordial five o'clock. The monks then pro- hospitality of the monks of Moun ceed to their various rooms, or cells Melleray, made a personal investias they are called, and pass the gation to see was such the case. He time in study, contemplation or accordingly visited the guest-house prayer until six o'clock when the several years in succession-stopcommunity assemble in the choir to ping weeks at a time, receiving the sing the office of Prime, which usu- very best of treatment, and order. ally lasts half an hour. After this ing every procurable delicacy office they go to the chapter room. Each year on his return he would The Chapter room in a Trappist receive the same hearty welcome faults, and receives some form of Finally at his death-this seem penance to perform. The most ingly unappreciative guest-had betrifling mistakes in the everyday queathed twelve thousand life of the Trappist monk are desig dollars to the monks of Mount nated faults. Laughing, or making Mellerary. - N. Y. Freeman's

Do Something.

Lent is here again, and Catholic eaders look for seasonable suggestions from their Catholic paper on able suggestion last Sunday from one of our pulpits which, though indeed not new, -as old, in fact, as the teaching of the Mother Church Herself on penitential practicesstill strikes an original note. This is the suggestion, in short and simple words: "Do something." Lent is but we will not profit overmuch if we make our observance of the holy season one of purely negative proportions. To falfil the spirit as well as the letter of the law, we must be positive, in our keeping of Lent. Who with any spirit in him, will say that it is enough in Lent to go to church, to put away this or that loxury or fad, to stop theatre going, to observe the rules of abstinence? What we want is t from sigars-or caramels-wby not give it to the poor? Why not devote the theatre money to some standing. At eight o'clock High good cause of charity and religion? Why not take a dollar of that money saved on the meat bill and give it to Guests and visitors are privileged the needy? It seems a good suggestion, this "Do Something."-

His 85th Birthday.

Monitor San Francisco.

(Antigonish Casket,)

His Lordship Bishop Cameron, Wednesday, Feb. 15th, celebrated the 85th anniversary of his birthday. On Tuesday afternoon a reception in honor of the occasion was tendered bim by the Reverend Sisters and pupils of the Congrege. tion de Notre Dame, Mt. St. Bernard's Convent. The ball was tastefully degarated for the occasion. Quite a number of friends were pres ent, among them nearly all the clergy of the town, and also the Rev. Mother Provincial, the Rev. Superiors of the Convents of Whit ney Pier, Piotou and New Glasgew A programme which showed great care in its preparation, and which reflects the highest credit on the devoted religious in charge, was beautifully rendered. An address was read in fine style by Miss Blugdon; it was a piece of rare poetic beauty. It reviewed the life of His Lordship through the long years of his priestly and episcopal life, and closed by wishing him many years vice of the day and is truly impres- militant; he dwelt upon the life of words "Memento Mori"-Remember At eight o'clock the monks have reference to Cardinal Rampolls. by Mrs. Foster in a visit to a friend:

weary, and the discouraged, espec- often they may be wanting to change some visitor in the monastery guest race and every creed find there a ately before the British elections if not the God speed that accom- reform in British tariff policy will S1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., of time. - Casket.

Was Troubled With Dyspepsia.

For Years Could Get No Relief

Burdock Blood Bitters.

Can Eat
Anything
Now.

Mrs. Herman
Dickenson, Benton,
N.B., writes: "I have used Burdock Blood Bitters and find that few mediaines can give publed for a number of years with lyspepsia and could get no relief until I ried Burdock Blood Bitters. I took three bottles and became cured and I can now eat anything without it hurting me. Burdock Blood Bitters has an establish ed reputation, extending over 34 years, as a specific for Dyspepsia in all its forms,

For sale by all dealers. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto. Ont.

The cow had jumped over the

"Why not, with beef and milk up in price! she demanded. Herewith she continued going Minard's Liniment Cures colds, tec.

"And how old are you, little girl?"

"And bow is it you are out walking without your mamma?"

"Ob, mamma doesn't go in for exercise. Really, we have very little Muscular Rheumatism.

Mr H. Wilkinson, Stratford, Ont. to say that I experienced great relief from Muscular Rheumatism by using two boxes of Milburn's Rheumatic Pills. Price a box 50c.

The Judge-"Did you arrest this chaffeur for speeding?"

The Policeman-"No, yer bonor; I pulled 'im in fer obstruction' th' road; he was goin' 30 miles an hour an' he was complained about by them that was riding at th' regular rate. "

A Sensible Merchant.

Mrs. Fred. Laine, St. George, Ont, writes :- " My little girl would cough so at night that neither she nor I could get any rest. I gave her Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and am thankful to say it cured her cough

"Who is the blindfolded party with the pair of scales" asked the stranger in the art gallery.

"That represents Justice." "Oh! I thought it was a sugar

There is nothing harsh about Laxa Liver Pills. They cure Constipation, Dispepsia, Sick Headache, and Bilious Spells without griping, purging or sickness. Price 25 cts.

"She is furiously angry at me." "Why?" "I took her to a football game." "But why is she angry." "I watched the game."

"How much does it cost to get married?" asked the eager youth. "That depends entirely on how long you live," replied the sad looking "For goodness' sake, Harriet, why

"The cook's left, but that isn't the worst of it. She took with her the recipe book for all the things John's mother used to make

Minard's Liniment cures Neuralgia.

Heart Trouble Cured.

Through one cause or another a large majority of the people are troubled with some form of heart trouble.

heart palpitates. You have weak and dizzy spells, a smothering feeling, cold clammy hands and feet, shortness of breath, sensation of pins and needles, rush of blood to the head, etc.

Wherever there are sickly people with weak hearts Milburn's Heart and Nerve weak hearts Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will be found an effectual medicine.

Pills will be found an effectual medicine.

Mrs. Wm. Elliott,
Angus, Ont., writes:

"It is with the greatest of pleasure I write you stating the benefit I have received by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I suffered greatly from heart trouble, weakness and smothering spells. I used a great deal of doctor's medicines but received no benefit. A friend advised me to buy a box of your friend advised me to buy a box of your pills, which I did, and soon found great

Limited. Toronto, Ont.