Amusements.

"THE DUCHESS."

The leading picture of the mid-week bill at the British theatre beginning to-night is "The Duchess," a pretty Irish romance from the famous novel by the same name. The story is one which rivets the interest from the start. The leading parts are taken by Cleo Madison and Joe King both of whom are well known as being among the best players in America. The photography and settings are superb and the whole story has a poetic vein running right through it. Some jealousy and plotting intermingle but love triumphs in the end and the pretty Irish girl and her lover are united at last. The "Trey O' Hearts" and L.K.O. comedy complete the bill which is well worth seeing.

EXPLOITS OF ELAINE, AT NICKEL THEATRE.

Nickel patrons will learn with pleasure that the popular serial "The Exploits of Elaine" will be continued at the Nickel Theatre to-day. This wonderful story has taken so well with the general public and has been so highly praised that very little need be said in its favor. The best evidence of its success is the large audiences that attend to see it. No subject ever given at the Nickel has won such popular approval as the "Exploits of Elaine." Then there are other beautiful pictures including a grand serial drama, a Pathe News and Chaplin comedy. The whole programme is one of the best; don't fail to see it.

AT THE POPULAR CRESCENT.

The programme advertised by the Crescent Picture Palace is one of the best mid-week shows that this popular movie house has put on yet. The two reel serial drama: "The Fork in the Road" or "How Fate Came With Bravery" is an out of the ordinary feature and contains an interesting story, the versatile actress Besie Eyton features in this novel production. Tom Mix, the great cowboy actor, features in a strong western drama: "The Outlaw's Bride." The Edison Company furnishes a fine domestic drama: "The Family Bible" and Bud Duncan, the great Kalem comedy man, creates the fun in "The Waitress and the Books." Dan Delmar, the popular Crescent vocalist, sings an Irish song: "The Rocky Road to Dublin." This is a great show, don't miss seeing it.

CASINO THEATRE.

"Our Boys."

Crowded houses were again in order yesterday when this beautiful picture was again shown to an admiring public. This production is growing in favor daily and everybody is agreed that it is absolutely the greatest "Animated" to have been shown in St. John's. Apart from the wonderful interest evinced in seeing "our own" many places of historical interest are visiting Aldershot, the greatest military barracks in the world, and also the home of Robert Burns. The picture will be shown both afternoons and evenings for the balance of the week. It is worthy of note that this picture is taken by special permission of the British War Office.

A REAL SHOW AT ROSSLEY'S.

The crowd at Rossley's last night laughed loud and long at the comedy sketch of Carroll and Ellor. Carroll in his magnificent costumes is a treat. The pictures shown at Rossley's are very good indeed. The contest on Friday night next promises to be a fine one as several names are in already. On Monday the greatest favorites that Mr. Rossley ever booked will open their engagement, specially booked for the pantomime, Mr. Ballard Brown and Miss Madge Locke. Those English artists have all new wardrobe. Mrs. Rossley has written the whole production, arranged all the songs and dances, and has a little army of dressmakers working on the costumes. The most novel pantomime ever seen, "Beauty and the Beast."

IN AID OF W. P. A.—A Sale of Cakes, Puddings, Fancy Goods, etc., will be held in the Ladies' Reading Room, Lyon Building, Water Street, on Dec. 21st. Keep this afternoon open.

Damage by Storm.

From passengers who came by the Portia from the Westward, we learn, that as a result of the recent storm at Bonne Bay damage was done to the herring nets there to the extent of $2,000. When the gale sprang up the boats which were on the grounds, had to run immediately for shelter, though their nets were filled with herring. Operations were also suspended at Bay of Islands, owing to the storm, but no damage of any account was done there.

Test Case.

Imperial Tobacco Co. (Nfld.) Ltd. vs. M. A. Duffy.

On behalf of the Imperial Tobacco Co. (Newfoundland) Ltd., Messrs. Furlong and Conroy have instituted proceedings against Mr. Michael A. Duffy, who is agent here for "Clover Leaf" Tobacco. The plaintiffs claim that this is an infringement on their brand. This is a test case, which comes before the Supreme Court on Friday next, and promises to be very interesting. The defendant is being represented by Messrs. Kent and McGrath.
