The Earl of Shaftesbury declared that the goodwill of the Pope and the Archbishop of Canterbury had been accorded the coming conference. DISPOSSESSED OF A PLACE OF WORSHIP.

Dr. Ephraim Scott, of Montreal, moderator of the general assembly of the continuing church, stated in an interview with R. E. QUIET IN CAPE BRETON.

SYDNEY, June 17. (Can. Press)—Hon. James Murdock, Minister of Labor, continued to-night to focus attention as a possible conciliator of the differences between the British Empire Steel Corporation and the miners of Nova Scotia. His morning conversations with the miners' district board were continued this afternoon. He spoke also with Vice President J. E. McLaughlin this morning, and met the corporation representatives again to-night. Mr. Murdock does not feel justified in making any statement, but he does not consider the situation without hope. Fans were restarted to-day in mines numbers two, nine, ten, eleven and twenty-four, as the result of the re-operation of the number two power plant. It is planned to commence pumping when the gas has been cleared out and the mines made safe for entrance. This may possibly be to-morrow in some collieries. The power house is strictly guarded by troops. The occupation of the New Waterford plant was the chief event to-day affecting the movement of troops. This was the scene of the fatal rioting of last week. A tour through the colliery districts to-day showed absolute quiet, with not many people in evidence. This followed a night of comparative calm and the hope is expressed that possible future outbreaks will be at least of minor importance. In addition to the large number of troops stationed at various points, more than two hundred mine workers have been sworn in as special constables under the Glace Bay police force.

"Zeebrugge" Still Running at the Nickel

Crowded Houses Greet Wonderful Naval Epic.

"Zeebrugge," the wonderful naval epic, which has caused so much comment this week is still running at the Nickel. This film has surpassed all previous motion picture triumphs in the annals of pictures in Newfoundland. Each afternoon and night the Nickel Theatre is filled to its capacity with enthusiastic spectators who are moved by the spirit of patriotism at the screening of this truly unusual attraction. Among the many high tributes paid the management regarding "Zeebrugge," is the endorsement of the Clergy now visiting the Priests' Convention. In "Zeebrugge," we have the astonishing and delectable spectacle of anti-British propaganda, made in Germany, being used to reinforce a British patriotic picture.

Obituary

MRS. CATHARINE McCUE.

Mrs. Catharine McCue, one of the most highly esteemed residents of Bar Haven, and a woman who was greatly admired and dearly loved by all who had the privilege of her personal acquaintance, passed peacefully away at her home, of pneumonia, on Saturday morning. Her death was the ending of a beautiful Christian life, spent in the comfort and solace of others and in the performance of multitudinous acts of charity. Her friends were legion and all who knew her were impressed with the depth and intelligence of her nature. While her fondest interest was her family she found time to be a great help and inspiration to those of the community by whom she found herself surrounded. In spite of her years, her intellect remained keen and bright, and she took a profound interest in present day affairs. She was a gifted lady, highly cultured and thoroughly devoted to her church, which meant so much to her in life. Her death, even though it came as a natural thing in the evening of advanced years, was, nevertheless, a great loss to the community and her immediate family. The funeral was held from her late residence to St. Francis Xavier's Church, Bar Haven, where Coleman High Mass of Requiem was celebrated for the repose of her soul. The pall bearers were James Brown, Joseph Coady, John Wadman, Thomas Bennett and Thomas Morris. The hymns, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Nearer My God to Thee," "Lead Kindly Light," and "Jesus Lover of My Soul" were sung at the close of Mass. Before intoning the Libera, Rev. Francis Cacciola, in preaching the funeral sermon, spoke of the unblemished life and noble aspirations of the deceased to serve her people and her perfect resignation to God's will. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery, Bar Haven.

ALPHEUS WICKS.

On May 18th, there passed to his eternal reward, Mr. Alpheus Wicks, who had been a sufferer for some months past, yet amid it all was very patient and when the summons came there was no fear. The deceased was formerly of Greenspond, B.B., and not only in his home town, was he liked and respected but also during the years which he had been living in this city. He has made many friends who will remember him with respect. He was an employee of A. H. Murray & Co., and a loyal member of the S.U.F.

There are left to mourn their loss, a loving wife, an aged father, four sisters, Mrs. E. Barry and Mrs. S. Carter, of Port Nelson, B.B., and Mrs. John Butler and Mrs. E. Loveless, of this city; also two brothers, Jacob, of Greenspond and Herbert, of the M.G. C.A., of this city, besides a large circle of friends.

Mrs. Wicks (wife of the deceased) wishes to correct the statement made in the Telegram a few days ago, regarding two children being left to mourn. The deceased left no children.

In "Zeebrugge," we have the astonishing and delectable spectacle of anti-British propaganda, made in Germany, being used to reinforce a British patriotic picture.

The German submarines carried cinematographers with them to photograph the sinking of British merchant ships. The film shows the sailors being ordered into the boats, and then their ship being torpedoed and sunk. There is one point where we see a British ship's captain telling the U-boat crew exactly what he thinks of them. This is an episode which we feel sure will make all picture-goers regret that motion pictures never speak. It would be interesting to know what the captain said!

Returned Soldier's Statement

Editor Evening Telegram
Dear Sir.—I saw a piece in your paper concerning a soldier and a sailor, who you said were on the street begging. Well I am the soldier whom it concerns; the soldier was not begging he was selling. I wish to contradict the statement regarding the soldier. My pension is only $34.50 a month in respect of tuberculosis. I am not in receipt of any help from any other organization. I have a wife to keep out of that rent to pay, and my boy earns $3.50 a week.

The Truth!

Perhaps you consider Sunlight Soap too good to wash your floors with? Well: the purpose for which you use soap, requires pure soap. If you use impure, or inferior soap it cannot do the work of pure soap, because it does not possess the necessary qualities; consequently, pure soap such as Sunlight Soap, is best and most economical, and cheapest for ALL washing purposes. Soaps which cost less than Sunlight Soap are worth less, and so of Lever's Sunlight Soap, it can be said with pride, 'tis best and cheapest of all soaps, which cannot be denied
