FORTY BELOW ZERO.
Eight Explorers Reported as Frozen to Death.

DULUTH, Minn., Feb. 3.—It is reported that eight men have perished in the unexplored regions along the Seine River. The party left here in January, and according to a letter received from a survivor the following persons have been frozen to death: Wm. Mackay, John Carter, Tom Barlowe, Charles McGuire, Wm. Morton, A. McGuire, Thos. Purcell and William Barrow.

The party left Rainy Lake City and headed up the Seine River, where camps are few. The thermometer dropped to 40° below zero, and one by one the prospectors dropped behind and perished in the snow.
There are now more than 200 prospectors in this region and it is believed there will be more reports of death from cold.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRES.

June elected secretary of the London Conference.

THE TRUSTEES.
"Among the trustees of the church who held office about the time the 'Advertiser' made its appearance, were Messrs. Peters, Tyas, Abbott, S. and McBride, Sereaton, Lawless, Elson, Garraff, A. Johnston, Ware, M. Anderson and Leary. Passing on down to November, 1874, Messrs. Thos. McCormick, George Robinson and A. B.
Powell were added to the trustee board, and about that time the resolve was made to erect the brick schoolroom in Mr. of the church which cost some $13,000, and is now popularly known as Wesley Hall. In 1873 the old Methodist Cemetery east of the city was sold and a new plot west of Petersville having been purchased, an organization distinct from the church was organized.
In October, 1874, the late Wm. McBride resigned the trusteeship of the trustee board, and Mr. A. B. Powell was elected to fill the position, and has actively in that capacity ever since. Thomas Green, R. J. C. Dawson and Jas. Eaton were chosen trustees in 1874. Mr. Dawson has been recording steward since November, 1874, and resigned the position. Among the incidents of 1873 was the resignation of Mr. S. Sereaton from the position of choir leader, after a quarter of a century's service, and valuable aid in the service of song. In the same year Wm. Glass was chosen a trustee in place of his father, Mr. S.
Glass, deceased. Among other worthies whom the church has lost by death were S. Peters, Wm. McBride (drowned in the Victoria disaster), John Elson, Geo.
Tyas and Jas. Coyne. Messrs. John Green and George C. Gibbons were chosen trustees in 1883.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS
"About the end of 1880 important improvements, destined to revolutionize the interior of the church, coupled with the introduction of a $9,000 organ, built by Warren, of Toronto, were resolved upon, and the next year saw all this accomplished before August, involving an outlay of some $15,000. The re-opening services began on Friday, Aug. 5, 1881, those taking part being Rev. Leo Gaetz, the new pastor, Rev. Dr. Nelles of Victoria College, and others, Dr. Verrinder, the organist, giving a grand concert at night. On Sunday, Aug. 7, Rev.
Dr. Nelles and Rev. Dr. Winter, then Toronto, preached, and on Sunday, Aug. 14, Rev. Wm. Williams and Rev.
J. A. Murray.

"The largest Methodist Church in the city, it is also beautifully finished with in, and the wish of the 'Advertiser' is that it may in the future prosper beyond anything that the past has known."

RECENT HISTORY.
The above brings the history of the church down to 1890. In that year the Rev. George Boyd was placed as pastor.
He was a most eloquent and earnest preacher, and won the affection of the entire congregation. His death was a sad stroke to the Methodists throughout the Conference, and also those of Newfoundland, from which island Mr. Boyd came to London.

The present pastor, Rev. J. W. Annis, succeeded Mr. Boyd. He, too, is receiving the hearty co-operation of his congregation in every undertaking. The membership has greatly increased during Mr. Annis' short pastorate. Rev. Dr.
S. Samuel McBride, of 430 Ridout street, is the oldest member of the church. He was on the first board of trustees, and is the only survivor, with the exception of Mr. Peter Anderson, who, however, withdrew from the church several years ago. Mr. McBride, in speaking of the old board, humorously remarked: "Good timber was scarce in those days, and we had to make do with nine or ten members then, while now we have about twenty." Mr. McBride still holds the position of pew steward.
The present trustees are: S. McBride, A. S. Abbott, Thos. McCormick, Geo.
Robinson, A. B. Powell (secretary), John Green, R. J. C. Dawson, Geo. C.
Gibbons, Q. C. W. M. Spencer, Dr. F. R.
Eccles, John Chapman, L. H. Ingram, D. Hanan, George T. Mann, Dr. Wm.
Samuel Glass, S. W. Abbott (treasurer), W. R. Hobbs and D. S. Perrin.

Rev. Dr. Evans, who for many years was in charge of the Western Ontario Bible Society's rooms, died recently.

NOTES.
"The quickest burning fire I have ever seen," said Chief Roe.

The heat melted the ice on the window panes a block away.

The last serious fire—Watson's box factory—burned on a Saturday night.

A dormer window was burned at Mrs.
Hiscox's house, and a carpet was ruined by the water.

A joint meeting of the quarterly and trustee boards will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon in a parlor at Salvation Citadel.

Some of the bystanders were cruel enough to get off the old joke that they never knew firemen could play upon an organ.

The coal and lumber stored in the basement of the church (which was formerly used as a schoolroom) must have made good food for the flames.

Patrick Tierney rendered valuable aid to the firemen, and had the misfortune to step on an upturned nail, which penetrated his boot and his foot.

The firemen were called again yesterday afternoon to the ruins, which had begun to smoke threateningly again.
They remained there for two hours.

Several times the crowd got too near the walls for safety. The firemen turned the hose on the intruders and gave them a taste of firemen's life, which was not greatly appreciated.

Mrs. (Dr.) Eccles and several ladies were in the church on Saturday evening making preparations for the love feast which was to be held prior to yesterday morning's service.

Sparks fell in showers beyond Dunferlin avenue, but fortunately the houses were all covered with snow. A charred leaf of a hymn book was picked up at the corner of Pall Mall and Wellington streets.

A rumor gained currency yesterday that the janitor usually slept in the basement, and that he could not be found. Mr. Morgan slept soundly all Saturday night at his home, 709 King street.

There was a great deal of rapid moving done by the occupants of the boarding house next to Wesley Hall. A lot of furniture was piled on the sidewalk, and a number of boarders carried their valises on their shoulders as they watched the fire.

Many farmers came into town to see the fire. They had a busy time at the central telephone office for an hour or so. Business men particularly wanted to know where the blaze was. Then there were numerous inquiries from surrounding towns.

It is understood that steps will immediately be taken to clear the ruins and prepare for building a great enlarged lecture hall, including classrooms, etc., will be erected first. The congregation will use it as a place of worship until such time as the church proper is rebuilt. A new and more commodious Wesley Hall has been in consideration for a long time.

A number of sites, apart from the old one, have been spoken of, including that at present occupied by St. James' Presbyterian Church, Richmond street, in case an idea that once prevailed is still entertained by the congregation alluded to, namely, that under certain circumstances, and if a reasonable price were available, they might consider the advisability of taking possession of some less occupied Presbyterian locality.

URGENT LIBERAL WHIP.
LONDON, Feb. 3.—An urgent Liberal whip has issued. It summons the members for 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, when questions of privilege are likely to be raised taking precedence over the address, and important divisions are expected.

EMPEROR WILLIAM AMAZED.
LONDON, Feb. 3.—The evening papers print the statement that Emperor William has expressed to the German consul his amazement and indignation at the fact that only one woman was saved from the Elbe. The German consul refuses to say whether or not he has received such a message from the Emperor.

COLD WEATHER IN ENGLAND.
LONDON, Feb. 3.—The weather during the past week has been phenomenally severe throughout England. Only one mail has been able to leave Cath-ness for ten days, and rural postmen have been snowed up and chilled into insensibility. The cold in London has been more severe than has been experienced for many years, and the hungry unemployed workers have greatly suffered.

THE PRICE OF A MISSIONARY.
$5,000.
LONDON, Feb. 3.—The Chinese Government has appropriated $5,000 to the father of Rev. James Wylie, the Scotch missionary who was murdered by the Chinese soldiers near the Liao Yang mission early in the war. The members of the mission have been instructed to erect a chapel and hospital at Liao Yang to Mr. Wylie's memory. Mr. Wylie's father is the provost of Hamilton, Lancashire.

THE TERRIBLE TURKS.
LONDON, Feb. 3.—The Armenians of Athens and Constantinople assert that 42 villages were destroyed and nearly 10,000 persons massacred, but more important and equally well-informed persons put the number at 25 villages and from 1,000 to 3,000 persons killed. The exact number will never be known. The Sultan was so well pleased with the work of his soldiers that he sent thanks and decorations to the officers, and forwarded flags to be presented to the regiments engaged in the awful butchery.

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.
LONDON, Feb. 3.—The Cabinet held three meetings last week, with the result of finishing the Queen's speech. The document was taken to Osborne by the Marquis of Ripon, Secretary of State for the Colonies, and Lord Cordington, on Saturday, for the purpose of obtaining the approval of her Majesty's Council.
It is now known that the Ministers have decided that if the Ministry must fall, it will fall fighting. Consequently the speech from the throne will contain references to reforms of which the Ministerial party approves without regard to whether they are likely to pass or not.

NEW GOLD DISCOVERIES IN WALES.
LONDON, Feb. 3.—Late tonight a report is current, apparently on perfect authority, that great new gold deposits have been found in Wales. There have been paying mines there for many years, but not much more than paying. The stories are now of veins which make everybody connected with them millionaires. The details are promised in a few weeks' time. Nothing really definite has been heard from Coolgardie, which has a good deal of British money is already invested, but reports of actual workings are expected in a week or two.

SOCIETY WILL SMILE.
LONDON, Feb. 3.—Incessant Victoria and Maud of Wales are to return to society, from which they have been absent for more than a year. They will be present at the reception to be given by the Countess Spencer at the Admiralty on Feb. 4. The time for the Princess of Vales' return home is still indefinite.
She has not been in England since she left a week or so before the death of Czar Alexander.

It is expected that Czar Nicholas and the Czarina will visit England in June.
They will reside in Buckingham Palace during their stay as the guests of the Queen, and will be present at a series of magnificent state functions which will be given in their honor.

MADE A BAD IMPRESSION.
LONDON, Feb. 3.—The Berlin correspondent of the Daily News says: Advices from St. Petersburg show that the Czar's speech declaring himself absolute has made a bad impression and has caused great excitement in liberal circles. Eleven arrests were made yesterday. Copies of handbills were found in St. Petersburg University recalling the fact that March will be the anniversary of the murder of Alexander II. The Daily News' correspondent in Vienna learns that the students of St. Petersburg University were about to send a petition to the Czar, but were warned not to do so. The promoters of the plan he says are the eleven under arrest.

CURIOSITY, BUT NO EXCITEMENT.
The New York Sun's London cable says: Political excitement over the assembling of Parliament on next Tuesday is almost nil. There is a good deal of curiosity over the question whether the Opposition will make a supreme effort to overthrow the Government on the question of the Queen's speech, but otherwise there is no particular interest in the situation. The Queen signed the speech today. It is longer than usual, and while it contains reference to other Government measures, it is said to make no mention in any form of the campaign against the Lords.

CANROBERT'S FUNERAL.
PARIS, Feb. 3.—All military and official Paris attended today the funeral of Francis Certain Canrobert, the last Marshal of France. The ceremonies were the same as at the state funeral of Marshal MacMahon almost a year and a half ago, but the crowds in the streets were smaller, and the signs of mourning less numerous among the people. In referring to Canrobert's part in the Crimean campaign, the minister said:
"The Russian and French armies now mingle the names of heroes who fought there." The troops of the Paris garrison filed past under General Sausser, the parting salutes were fired and the body was removed to the vault, where Abbe Misset, the marshal's life-long friend, prayed for his soul. The parade of the troops was exceptionally brilliant. It is estimated that 200,000 persons stood between the station and the office, while thousands more looked down from the windows and roofs.

THE JAPS' LATEST SUCCESS.
YOKOHAMA, Feb. 3.—The official dispatches received here show that the capture of the forts at Wei Hai Wei was due to the skilful combined movements of the Japanese. It is added that the defense of Wei Hai Wei, in view of the strength of that place, is feeble. The chief forts at Pail Chi Hyyao were taken after a few hours' fighting; but some of the others were stubbornly defended. The Japanese sixth division were under arms at 2 o'clock in the morning, and the advance was made under cover of a furious bombardment from the Japanese fleet. Here was the main point of the Chinese resistance. After the fighting had proceeded for some hours, the sixth division, having driven back the enemy, made a detour, and by preconcerted arrangement, proceeded to take possession of the eastern entrances of the harbor, and by 3 p.m. all the forts about Pail Chi Hyaiso also, to the southwest, were captured. The Chinese retreated towards Fung Lin Chu. At 4:30 p.m., when these dispatches were sent, the battle was still raging. The Chinese fleet and Forts Yatao, Tsamso and Wang Tao, and the well-aimed batteries on the Island of Liu Kung Tao were furiously replying to the Japanese, whose ships were maneuvering so as to block both entrances of the harbor.

CHE FOO, Feb. 3.—The western forts of Wei Hai Wei were taken by the Japanese on Jan. 30 in spite of the good resistance made by the Chinese.
One Japanese gunboat was sunk, after having been badly damaged. A shell burst in the magazine of one of the Chinese forts and the whole store of powder blew up and is believed to have caused great mortality. The eastern forts were bombarded for four hours by the Japanese cruisers Naniwa, Aki-sushima and Katsura. The Japanese fire was well directed and dismounted several guns, but neither the eastern forts nor the city of Wei Hai Wei were captured. The authorities of Che Foo have seized and beheading runaway Chinese soldiers who fled from Wei Hai Wei. Further operations are impossible for the moment, owing to the severity of the weather.

YOKOHAMA, Feb. 3.—Official advices from the seat of war are to the effect that the enemy's ships are still in the gulf. There has been severe fighting, with heavy losses, on both sides. At 4:30 on the afternoon of Jan.
30 the battle was still raging. At Shu-hai it is reported that one of the Chinese warships was disabled and two torpedo boats sunk by the forts in Linugton.
The Chinese fleet is still inside the harbor at Wei Hai Wei.

SHANGHAI, Feb. 3.—It is stated on good authority that the British, French and Russian ministers at Tokio and at Peking have received instructions from their Governments to urge Japan and China to arrange terms of peace.

A Central News' dispatch from Liu Kung Tao on Friday, says that Viceroy Liu Kung Ti has arrived at New Chwang, and will assume command of the Chinese operations in Manchuria. Gen. Nozu, the Japanese commander, expects to be attacked tomorrow or Tuesday.
His spies report that there are now 50,000 Chinese troops in the neighborhood of Yeng Kow and New Chwang.

A dispatch from Che Foo today says:
The Japanese have captured the Island of Liu Kung Tao, the last strategic stronghold of the Chinese at Wei Hai Wei.
The bombardment was terrific and lasted for hours. The Chinese answered it with unusual spirit, but many of their guns were disabled early in the engagement. Towards the close of the bombardment six Japanese ships landed marines, who captured the batteries.
The fighting was severe and many were killed and wounded on each side. As this dispatch is sent the two fleets are hotly engaged.

CHICAGO EXCITED.
People Along the Lake Shore Claim to Have Seen the Chloora's Hull.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Great excitement prevailed this afternoon and evening among the people along the Illinois shore of Lake Michigan, from South Chicago to Whiting, Ind., on account of the general circulation of a report that the hull of the steamer Chloora was floating outside the ice fields between those places, and that forms of human beings could be discovered on the hull. The search, while it has not led to the discovery of anything in the shape of wreckage or of anything with human beings on it, was not abandoned till darkness set in, and will be renewed tomorrow.

The crews of the tugs that did the searching saw the numerous hummocks of snow and ice with seagulls perched upon them, which might easily be taken for human beings by excited people on shore.
