"Rob Roy," that excellent musical day evening next, by Mr. F. C. Whitney's splendid singing organization. Scotland has furnished the subject, and the quaint, romantic Highlands the melodies from which this now celebrated pair of composers have drawn their most successful work.

Readers of Scotch history are familiar with the experiences of Prince Charlie on the occasion of his invasion of his native land. It is the exciting incidents of this period when the pretending prince, backed by Rob Roy, and his clansmen, made the last effort to wrench the throne of his ancestors from the hands of the English, that composition. Mr. Dekoven, in his score has produced some new and unique harmonies. He has, of course, drawn largely on the national melodies to produce this effect, but that without the suggestion of plagiarism. LONG SLEEP WHILE HYPNO-TIZED.

Ferris and Salvail, the hypnotists and comedians, continue a drawing card at the Music Hall. The hypnotic portion of the entertainment is, perhaps, the best that has ever been seen in these parts. It is both instructive and extremely amusing. Mr. Ferris is a graduate of the Charcot Hypnotic Institute at Nancey, France, which was established for the purposes of scientific research. The mesmerist shows unique and specially interesting features, not only in catalepsy, but de-monstrates beyond a doubt that he can and does control in his subjects any set or sets of muscles. While the and arms are perfectly normal. He especially invites the medical profession to attend free of charge. While in New York, Mr. Ferris had a subject under hypnotic influence for 28 days. The contract made was was 21 days, but at the end of 21 days the subject was aroused and put to sleep again for another week. During this time all the nourishment the subject received was 18 ounces of milk and ounces of water. On Monday night Mr. Blake Mills to Miss Mary Armstrong, Ferris will put a subject to sleep, in which he will remain for a week. He will be brought to on March 29.
