The market held here during the past week were of the ordinary kind for this time of the year. The supply of hay during the week was the feature of the markets. Trade as a rule was brisk, and the prices realized seemed pleasing to those who had the produce to dispose of. Grain—Oats are about the only kind of grain-offered; there is a good demand and prices are firm, at 99c to $101 per cent. more especially during the latter par Hay and Straw—The supply of hay was large; there is a good demand for the choice loads at $8 and $8 59 per ton; medium, $7 50 to $8. The demand for straw is not as brisk as in the previous week; sales are made at $5 59 to $6 per ton. have been lightening their lead. A. Butter and Eggs—The demand for butter is a trifle easier at present; one of the most extensive dealers in this in the city is of the opinion that there will be no drop in prices to any extent for some time to come; present prices vary according to the specialists, the character of the buying has been better than the selling. Outside business has been reduced to a minimum and the professional element is, as a rule, bear-

TORONTO.

Toronto, Jan. 24.—Trade at the City cattle market was on the whole dull, business being generally draggy after the first couple of hours. In the export trade shipping space is limited, and for this reason the demand is not so active as it otherwise might be. There were a few good loads offering, and these sold fairly well at about $450 to $5, the top. Choice butcher cattle were not to be had by those who wanted this class at prices much, if anything, below what they have been paying for some time, but common been paying for some time, but common butchers and mediums were much easier, being in some cases 25 to 30c lower than week as so ago. Lambs are higher and firm. There is a decided advance in the hog market, prices jumping up today to $5.30 for selects and $5.05 for the next.

This is an advance of about 40c in a little over a week.

Corbett & Henderson sold a load of extra choice butchers' heifers, 1,190 lbs, at $4 25; a load of mixed cattle, 1,000 lbs, at $3 40; a load of mixed cows, $2 20 to George Rowntree bought for the Harris Abattoir Company 159 head of mixed outchers' cattle; picked light butchers'

You walk with her, you rock her, you give her sugar, you try all kinds of things!

But she coughs all through the long night, just the same!

No need spending another night this way. Just a dose or two of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will soothe the throat, quiet the cough, insure a good night's rest. Ask your doctor about the wisdom of your keeping this remedy in the house, ready for these night coughs of the children. Doctors have the formula. They know all about this medicine.
