ISSUE A MORAL ONE DESPITE DEAN'S OPINION

"Voice From the Pew" Expresses Surprise at Action Taken by Alliance.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Last evening's city papers conveyed the sorrowful and astounding fact that the London Ministerial Association had met and discussed the present opportunity and evidently be-cause one of its members strongly dissented, the association dissolved without again placing itself on record for what it has stood for through the years-the abolition of the bar. And why not? The reason given by Dean Davis for his insistent -vetoing of the proposition was in brief that it would appear to be taking sides in a political issue. "The question of bar abolition has long since outgrown party restrictions, for Christians and temperance Liberals have joined hands in a holy compact to wipe out this curse from our fair definite a moral issue as was ever placed before our electorate. Indeed all our "plebiscites" and "referendums" votes were not any more clear cut than is the present one. We know beyond question on the one side will be arrayed all those wishing for the retention of the bar and their "trade" and this, without the slightest thought of a deflection for the sake of party or previous political affiliation; not one single man in all Ontario in the liquor trade and desirous of its per-petuation will vote the Liberal ticket, and although Dean Davis and myself have evidently in previous years voted straight Conservative, I dare not do it now for I know the bar is a curse, and I know there is no other issue before the electorate at this present time comparable to this. Mr. Rowell said in his great address at Stratford last evening, "I say to the man who believes the bar is a curse and yet who for the sake of party, votes to retain the bar, that he must carry on his conscience to his dying day his share of responsibility—for every home blighted, every life blasted. and every child ruined by the con-tinued existence of the open bar."

Conspiracy of Silence.

Now, believing our clergymen must, to a man, be opposed to this unques-tionable evil, the open bar, then why this conspiracy of silence It is too much akin to the tactics of the liquor party who never yet has dared to work in the open, but silently pursues its chosen courses. Surely our clergy need to pray the prayer voiced in Acts 4:29-"And now Lord behold their threatenings, and grant unto Thy servants that with all boldness they may speak Thy word." We do thank God that London has its fine band of fearless, courageous ministers led on by a Bingham, a Flanders, a Knox, but at present it seems to be somewhat suffering for the lack of more of like ilk. God grant that to pulpit and pew alike may come a vision of their respective duties at this great crisis and transcending opportunity.

They indicate an extremely weakened condition of the heart and a disordered state of the nerves. One dizzy spell may pass off, but eventually they will come requently, and at the same time more

Those who are wise will start taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills before their case becomes hopeless, for they have no equal for restoring the heart to its usual strength, and making the nerves firm and steady.

Mrs. Len. Kinney, Moose Mountain, N.B., writes:-"I was troubled with weak and dizzy spells, and my heart would beat something awful. I got so I had those spells every day. I got so I would try one medicine, and then another, but nothing did me any good until I got Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I can safely say they did me more good than anything I ever took, for I feel like a very different woman. My friends often ask me what I have been taking, and I always say 'Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.' I tell all my friends who say their heart troubles them, to take your pills."
