Premier Dury Thinks At- Couple Had Not Lived in Hartorney-General Will Be Successful in Riding.

ANTI-PATRONAGE POLICY.
TORONTO, Yeb. 4.—A. Hellier, U.
F. O. member for East Wellington, yesterday offered to resign in favor of Attorney-General W. E. Raney, for whom the Government has been for some time seeking a riding, according to Premier Drury.
According to Premier Drury the Government is rigidly adhering to its anti-patronage policy in the matter of Mr. Hellier'sr esignation.
"What has the retiring member been promised?" the premier was asked today.

day.
"He gets absolutely nothing but a sense of duty well done," stated the prime minister. What is the political situation in East Wellington as you see it?" the premier was asked.
"Very favorable. Mr. Raney will be successful, I think."

Not only were they a menace! to the employers, but also to the commonsense labor men who by conditions existing had to be associated with them, stated one of the delegates. The discussion arose out of a clause In the report from the labor commit-tee which read: "Admitting as we do the right of labor to organize, we submit that this association should insist that all labor organizations become incorporated in parties of the contract; also that penalties may be enforced for the breaking of such contract. We recommend that the benefit funds of labor unions should not be made liable in any way."

The consensus of opinion elicited by the discussion, however, was that it would be impossible to "insist" on the incorporation of labor in Canada, and the clause was altered to read, 'that this association would urge all labor crease."
