APRIL 27.

Children born on this date are very quick to follow the examples of their parents and elders, and should be carefully guarded in such respects. Although these little folks are stubborn, they are easily turned aside when governed by a strong and loving hand. They must be taught truthfulness and allegiance to law above all things.

It takes but little to rouse a Taurus man or woman to anser, and once excited they are utterly unmanageable. They are not, on the whole, comfortable people to live with. They roar and kick, regardless of feelings or furniture, and when so excited they would like to kill.

These people are subject to heart ke to kill.

On Monday evening he delivered a lecture entitled "The Origin and Des-tiny of the British Empire." The doctor dwelt largely on the Bible prophe-cies. He showed how they fitted into the part which the British nation has filled so admirably in connection with Christ's kingdom here on earth; what golden promises were assured to a nation like the British Empire, who are and have been the forerunners in carrying on gospel and missionary enterprises.

The lecture was of an interesting nature, and was greatly appreciated by those present Rev. Mr. River gave a short address, expressing his pleasure and de-light as a listener, and that if in order he would be pleased to move most hearty vote of thanks to the lecturer. This was seconded by G. J. Sutherland, and carried heartily by the large audience. A feature of the anniversary ser-vices was the spendid anthem given by the church choir, a solo by Ola Cook at the morning service, and a duet at the evening service by Mrs. W. A. McLaren and Ola Cook. The anniversary services on Sunday last will long be remembered as being both pleasant and inspiring. Jeff's Brain Is Hitting On One Cylinder Again.
